American Heritage Journal of Creativity Leah Ojinna, 2012-12-13 The American Heritage Journal of Creativity AHJC is a biannual journal of research from American Heritage University of Southern California located in the San Bernardino County in California USA. It is published twice in a year. It accepts creativity as going beyond the possession and use of artistic musical or writing talent but permeating throughout the curriculum in science, social studies and other areas. Research works conducted in the academia without restriction to subject are invited. The objectives of AHJC are to disseminate internationally pragmatic academic research solutions in diverse disciplines that are functionally creative and relevant to community and universal issues. Essentially, the crucial requirement is that it has to be a research paper with empirical findings. AHJC provides a multidisciplinary forum for the publication of original research and technical papers, short communications, state of the art developments in the liberal arts and sciences. Aside from articles, we also encourage prospective authors to submit book reviews, notes, short commentaries and full page relevant advertisements. NewsWatch, 2000

African Journal of Studies in Education, 2010 Echoes: Life Lessons from an Online Village Joseph Ola, Anu Ola. This book is born out of the outreach of the authors to young adults and teenagers, particularly those they are mentoring in an online village called Alive Mentorship Group. Based on an acknowledgement of the fact that our everyday life offers us tremendous learning opportunities, the book brings together various life lessons which the authors have shared with their mentees on the mentorship platform within a year 2021. Written in a devotional style based on reflective journaling, each chapter draws some life lessons from a reflection on the life experiences of the authors, their victories, failures and observations from doing life with others on a daily basis. Their hope is that each reader will truly find these life lessons from their online village a helpful resource as they make progress in their destiny journey. Dying Education: Necessary Reformation. the Nigerian Case Ezeoke, Alphonsus Emeka, 2011-09-06 This book is an educational piece and a thoroughly researched contribution in the 21st century Nigeria. I recommend it to all lovers of education. The Education Ministers, Boards and other relevant bodies have to read this. University Dons would find Very Rev Fr Dr Alphonsus Ezeoke's book exceptionally useful. It is a handbook for today's students. Very Rev Msgr Prof J P C Nzomiwu Nnamdi Azikiwe University Awka, Nigeria. Straddling two cultures, Fr Ezeoke not only exposes the urgent need for educational reform in Nigeria but he also advances the strategies that are needed to reach under the current system and lift it up. Knowing the historicity, Fr Ezeoke's careful assessment calls for action and boldly determines that such an undertaking is key to Nigerian growth, unity and global interaction. Cathy B Grandjean, MA, BCC, Fmr Director of Chaplaincy, Catholic Health Services of Long Island. I write to congratulate Rev Dr Alphonsus Ezeoke for this unique 21st Century contribution to the field of education. While he promoted positive and optimistic concern to educational growth in general, he equally got to the root of the dilemma, illusions, presumptions, ideologies and projections that impact negatively on its attainment. I highly recommend this masterpiece to the educational system in Nigeria especially to everyone who is conscious to make his her educational journey a success story
