Conflict and Catholic Social Ethics Taylor J. Ott,2024-11-01 This book focuses on the question of how to understand conflict and its place in Catholic and Christian social ethics The author examines Catholic social teaching CST for its explicit mentions of conflict or contention and analyzes the way that CST addresses the subjects of peace labor and environment While CST offers precedent to think about conflict within the frame of Catholic ethics its lack of explicit engagement remains a major obstacle to a full rich and concrete understanding of the fabric of society and the work of social justice Any social ethic that is not informed by the presence of conflict misses a major dynamic in society and therefore leads to ethical judgements that are at best inadequate and at worst actively harmful Building upon the insight of respected thinkers within Catholic social thought this study is based on an interdisciplinary method that engages sociology political theory postcolonial theory and intersectional feminist ethics The book will be of particular interest to theological ethicists and those who work with modern CST mitigation and adaptation programs and a broad spectrum of researchers and advanced students in the environmental sciences Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya Donna J. Amoroso, 2014

Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya In this original and perceptive study Donna J Amoroso argues that the Malay elites preeminent position after the Second World War had much to do with how British colonialism reshaped old idioms and rituals helping to re invent a tradition In doing so she illuminates the ways that traditionalism reordered the Malay political world the nature of the state and the political economy of leadership In the postwar era traditionalism began to play a new role it became a weapon which the Malay aristocracy employed to resist British plans for a Malayan Union and to neutralise the challenge coming from groups representing a more radical democratic perspective and even hijacking their themes Leading this conservative struggle was Dato Onn bin Jaafar who not only successfully helped shape Malay opposition to the Malayan Union but was also instrumental in the creation of the United Malays National Organisation UMNO that eventually came to personify an acceptable Malay nationalism Traditionalism and the Ascendancy of the Malay Ruling Class in Colonial Malaya is an important contribution to the history of colonial Malaya and more generally to the history of ideas in late colonial societies Book jacket
