Green day → due Tuesday, December 8th by 11:59 PM

*Students will need to read and use the novel Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass to complete this assignment

Select one of the thematic prompts below for the main body of your paper:

A: Oppression

Douglass goes to great lengths to show a variety of ways in which slaves were oppressed: physically, mentally, economically, legally, socially, and economically. What form of oppression had the most significant impact on Douglass and other slaves? How did Douglass and others endure? Make sure to discuss each form of oppression, and then explain why one form was more insidious than the rest.

B: Education

Douglass makes clear that education is the key to freedom. Why did slaveholders want their slaves to remain ignorant? How did they keep them ignorant? Besides learning to read and write, what other forms of ignorance were imposed on the slaves? How did learning to read and write change Douglass? What else did Douglass learn in the process?

C: Coming of Age

This narrative is, among other things, a coming-of-age journey. How does Douglass grow up while enduring slavery? In what ways are his coming-of-age journey like all young people's? For this topic, look at the important turning points in Douglass's life. Note and discuss his epiphanies and how each one changed and shaped him.
