Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90 10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett

South Africa Pushed to the Limit Hein

Marais,2011-01-13 Since 1994 the democratic government in South Africa has worked hard at improving the lives of the black majority yet close to half the population lives in poverty jobs are scarce and the country is more unequal than ever For millions the colour of people s skin still decides their destiny In his wide ranging incisive and provocative analysis Hein Marais shows that although the legacies of apartheid and colonialism weigh heavy many of the strategic choices made since the early 1990s have compounded those handicaps Marais explains why those choices were made where they went awry and why South Africa s vaunted formations of the left old and new have failed to prevent or alter them From the real reasons behind President Jacob Zuma s rise and the purging of his predecessor Thabo Mbeki to a devastating critique of the country s continuing AIDS crisis its economic path and its approach to the rights and entitlements of citizens South Africa Pushed to the Limit presents a riveting benchmark analysis of the incomplete journey beyond apartheid The Politics and

Alexander Aleinikoff,Douglas

Klusmeyer,2013-01-25 Citizenship policies are changing rapidly in the face of global migration trends and the inevitable ethnic and racial diversity that follows The debates are fierce What should the requirements of citizenship be How can multi ethnic states forge a collective identity around a common set of values beliefs and practices What are appropriate criteria for admission and rights and duties of citizens This book includes nine case studies that investigate immigration and citizenship in Australia the Baltic States Canada the European Union Israel Mexico Russia South Africa and the United States This complete collection of essays scrutinizes the concrete rules and policies by which states administer citizenship and highlights similarities and differences in their policies From Migrants to Citizens the only comprehensive guide to citizenship policies in these liberal democratic and emerging states will be an invaluable reference for scholars in law political science and citizenship theory Policymakers and government officials involved in managing citizenship policy in the United States and abroad will find this an excellent accessible overview of the critical dilemmas that multi ethnic societies face as a result of migration and global interdependencies at the end of the twentieth century Proceedings ,2001 Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo,2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries African Journal of Reproductive Health ,2004 Annual Report South Africa.
