Müller,2019 In recent years tourism geographies have developed into a vibrant field of research at the intersection of geography and tourism studies The book presents a unique collection of individual research agendas aiming to inspire the pursuit of new avenues of research Although there have been arguments to apply post disciplinary perspectives within tourism research this book highlights the interest and potential of tourism geographers to contribute to a geographical tradition and influence the future content of geography as a discipline Pricing and Efficiency in Water Resource Management, by R.K. Davis and Others, Geoge Washington University and Johns Hopkins University United States. National Water Commission,1971 Africa Tony Binns,Etienne Nel,Alan Dixon,Kenneth Lynch,2023-12-08 Africa Diversity and Development introduces and de mystifies

Africa's diversity and dynamism and considers how its peoples and environments have interacted through time and space. The book examines the background and diversity of Africa's social, cultural, economic, political, and environmental systems as well as key development issues which have affected Africa in the past and are likely to be significant in shaping the future of the continent. These include the impact of HIV/AIDS, sources of conflict and post-conflict reconstruction, the state and governance, the nature of African economies in a global context and future development trajectories. This second edition features new chapters on history and governance, health, separate chapters on rural and urban development and updated content on all aspects of the continent, particularly aspects of culture and ethnicity. It is richly illustrated throughout with diagrams and plates and contains a wealth of detailed up-to-date case studies and current data. This textbook is a refreshing interdisciplinary text which enhances understanding of the background to Africa's current position and clarifies possible future scenarios. It will be a valuable resource for students taking modules on Africa, African Development and Geography of Africa and will also prove useful to students in the wider fields of Geography, Development Studies, Global Studies, Environment and Society and African Politics.

Türkiye Benedict, Tümer, Tekin, Mansur, 2021-10-11 Türkiye Peter Benedict, Erol Tümer, Tekin, Fatma Mansur, 1974 A Guide to Information Sources in the Geographical Sciences Stephen Goddard, 1983-01-01 Geography is a wide-ranging discipline and the number of information sources available is truly enormous. These include printed books and journal articles, maps, satellite photographs, archives, statistical information and much else. One particular problem facing geographers is that when one studies a foreign country, information may be available only in the foreign country and difficult to obtain. This book discusses the information sources available to geographers.

Neo-Thinking on Ganges-Brahmaputra Basin Geomorphology Balai Chandra Das, Sandipan Ghosh, Aznarul Islam, MD. Ismail, 2016-01-08 This book explores the latest advances in our understanding of the evolution of the Ganga-Brahmaputra delta, examining the Damodar basin, Bhagirathi, Hooghly basin and Jalangi basin from historical, quantitative and applied geomorphology perspectives. The evolution of the Ganga-Brahmaputra delta is highly complex and remains poorly understood. To address that gap, this edited volume presents 11 research papers; the first seven chapters focus on the pure geomorphology and geohydrology of the delta, while the remaining four examine its applied geomorphological aspects. The book offers a valuable guide for geologists, geographers, hydrologists, landscape ecologists, environmentalists, engineers, planners and policy makers.

Geographers Elizabeth Baigent, André Reyes Novaes, 2017-12-14 Geographers Biobibliographical Studies Volume 36 focuses on 20th-century Britain and 19th and 20th-century France. Six essays on individual geographers are complemented by a group article which describes the building of a French school of geography. From Britain, the life of Sir Peter Hall, one of the most distinguished geographers of recent times and a man widely known outside the discipline, is set alongside memoirs of Bill Mead, who made the rich geography of the Nordic countries come alive to geographers and others in the Anglophone world. Michael John Wise and Stanley Henry Beaver, who made their mark through building up the institutions where academic geography was practised and through teaching and Anita McConnell whose geographical training shaped her museum curation and studies of the history of science From France the individual biography of Andr Meynier is juxtaposed with group article on the first five professors of geography at Clermont Ferrand These intellectual biographies collectively show geography and geographers profoundly affected by wider historical events the effect of war particularly the Second World War and the shaping of post war society They show the value of geographical scholarship in elucidating local circumstances and in planning national conditions and as a basis for local national and international friendship United States Air Force Academy United States Air Force Academy,1974 Proceedings of National Seminar Dr. Dharam Das Vishwakarma, The following book is an academic non fiction research publication of original research papers presented in National Research Seminar held on 26 28 February 2011 at Government Autonomous P G College Chhindwara Madhya Pradesh We all know that conservation of resources of Earth is essential to make the life to exist In contemporary time this issue is arising as a challenging question in front of this beautiful world On the same pace present book is the collection of 34 research papers presented in National Research Seminar on the topic of Land use Land cover change Water Resource Management Tourism Development and Biodiversity in Madhya Pradesh These research papers are relevant on the introspection and analysis of the various issues of land forest and water This work will prove relevant in the direction of making this blue planet a place of worthy life History of Education in Iowa Clarence Ray Aurner,1915 McGill Sub-arctic Research Papers ,1962
