Putin's Wars Marcel H. Van Herpen,2015-07-01 This fully updated book offers the first systematic analysis of Putin s three wars placing the Second Chechen War the war with Georgia of 2008 and the war with Ukraine of 2014 2015 in their broader historical context Drawing on extensive original Russian sources Marcel H Van Herpen analyzes in detail how Putin s wars were prepared and conducted and why they led to allegations of war crimes and genocide He shows how the conflicts functioned to consolidate and legitimate Putin s regime and explores how they were connected to a fourth hidden internal war waged by the Kremlin against the opposition The author convincingly argues that the Kremlin relying on the secret services the Orthodox Church the Kremlin youth Nashi and the rehabilitated Cossacks is preparing for an imperial revival most recently in the form of a Eurasian Union An essential book for understanding the dynamics of Putin s regime this study digs deep into the Kremlin s secret long term strategies Readable and clearly argued it makes a compelling case that Putin s regime emulates an established Russian paradigm in which empire building and despotic rule are mutually reinforcing As the first comprehensive exploration of the historical antecedents and political continuity of the Kremlin s contemporary policies Van Herpen s work will make a valuable contribution to the literature on post Soviet Russia and his arguments will stimulate a fascinating and vigorous debate Geographers Elizabeth Baigent,André Reyes

Novaes,2017-12-14 Geographers Biobibliographical Studies Volume 36 focuses on 20th century Britain and 19th and 20th century France Six essays on individual geographers are complemented by a group article which describes the building of a

French school of geography From Britain the life of Sir Peter Hall one of the most distinguished geographers of recent times and a man widely known outside the discipline is set alongside memoirs of Bill Mead who made the rich geography of the Nordic countries come alive to geographers and others in the Anglophone world Michael John Wise and Stanley Henry Beaver who made their mark through building up the institutions where academic geography was practised and through teaching and Anita McConnell whose geographical training shaped her museum curation and studies of the history of science From France the individual biography of Andr Meynier is juxtaposed with group article on the first five professors of geography at Clermont Ferrand These intellectual biographies collectively show geography and geographers profoundly affected by wider historical events the effect of war particularly the Second World War and the shaping of post war society They show the value of geographical scholarship in elucidating local circumstances and in planning national conditions and as a basis for local national and international friendship
