ITIL Strategic Sourcing and outsourcing performance risk and contingency management including COBIT the Balanced Scorecard etc and leadership team management and professional competences The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N. Godehardt,2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies Students of Color and the Achievement Gap Richard R. Valencia,2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks Geographies of Developing Areas Glyn Williams,Paula Meth,Katie Willis,2014-03-21 Geographies of Developing Areas is a thought provoking and accessible introductory text presenting a fresh view of the Global South that challenges students pre conceptions and promotes lively debate Rather than presenting the Global South as a set of problems from rapid urbanization to poverty this book focuses on the diversity of life in the South and looks at the role the South plays in shaping and responding to current global change The core contents of the book integrate traditional concerns of development geographers such as economic development and social inequality with aspects of the global South that are usually given less attention such as cultural identity and political conflict This edition has been fully updated to reflect recent changes in the field and highlight issues of security risk and violence environmental sustainability and climate change and the impact of ICT on patterns of North South and South South exchange It also challenges students to think about how space is important in both the directions and the outcomes of change in the Global

South emphasizing the inherently spatial nature of political economic and socio cultural processes Students are introduced to the Global South via contemporary debates in development and current research in cultural economic and political geographies of developing areas The textbook consider how images of the so called Third World are powerful but problematic It explores the economic political and cultural processes shaping the South at the global scale and the impact that these have on people s lives and identities Finally the text considers the possibilities and limitations of different development strategies The main arguments of the book are richly illustrated through case study material drawn from across the Global South as well as full colour figures and photos Students are supported throughout with clear examples explanations of key terms ideas and debates and introductions to the wider literature and relevant websites in the field The pedagogical features of the book have been further developed through discussion questions and activities that provide focused tasks for students research including investigation based around the book s case studies and in depth exploration of debates and concepts it introduces European Union Peace Through Entrepreneurship Steven R. Koltai, 2016-08-30 Joblessness is the root cause of the global unrest threatening American security. Fostering entrepreneurship is the remedy. The combined weight of American diplomacy and military power cannot end unrest and extremism in the Middle East and other troubled regions of the world. Steven Koltai argues Koltai says an alternative approach would work: investing in entrepreneurship and reaping the benefits of the jobs created through entrepreneurial startups. From 9/11 and the Arab Spring to the self-proclaimed Islamic caliphate, instability and terror breed where young people cannot find jobs. Koltai marshals evidence to show that joblessness, not religious or cultural conflict, is the root cause of the unrest that vexes American foreign policy and threatens international security. Drawing on Koltai's stint as senior adviser for Entrepreneurship in Secretary Hillary Clinton's State Department and his thirty-year career as a successful entrepreneur and business executive, Peace through Entrepreneurship argues for the significant elevation of entrepreneurship in the service of foreign policy, not rural microfinance or mercantile trading, but the scalable stuff of Silicon Valley and Sam Walton, generating the vast majority of new jobs in economies large and small. Peace through Entrepreneurship offers a nonmilitary, long-term solution at a time of disillusionment with Washington's big development approach to unstable and underdeveloped parts of the world and when the new normal is fear of terrorist attacks against Western targets, beheadings in Syria, and jihad. Extremism will not be resolved by a war on terror. The answer, Koltai shows, is stimulating entrepreneurial economic opportunities for the virtually limitless supply of desperate unemployed young men and women leading lives of endless economic frustration.

China-Taiwan Rapprochement Min-Hua Chiang, 2015-10-30 This book examines how since about 2008 the economy of Taiwan has become ever more deeply integrated into the economy of China. It goes beyond a consideration of trade and investment flows and discusses also the large population flows, the growing integration of the two financial systems, and the nature of the deep economic integration at the industry and firm level. It considers the impact of growing economic integration on society and politics, assesses how China-Taiwan economic integration is affecting the East Asian region more widely, and explores the implications for international relations, including the United States' dominance in the region. Overall, the book presents a comprehensive analysis of all the issues.

The European Union's Broader Neighbourhood Sieglinde Gstöhl, Erwan Lannon, 2015-07-16 Over the past decade the European Union (EU) has gradually developed the European Neighbourhood Policy (ENP) with its neighbours. At the same time the neighbours of the EU's neighbours have presented new challenges. This book addresses the EU's broader neighbourhood, comprising of the ENP countries and the neighbours of its neighbours. With specific focus on Saharan Africa, the Middle East, and Central Asia, it discusses trans-regional policy issues that arise from the EU's relations with regions beyond the ENP. Based on an interdisciplinary, policy-oriented approach, this volume explores major political, legal, security, and socio-economic challenges and identifies opportunities for cooperation across the EU's broader neighbourhood. This book will be of interest to students, experts, and scholars interested in EU affairs and politics.
