

Reasoning from Evidence Rules (over all !)

Here's what we mean by these terms:

Claim: one-sentence statement relating two things. For example:
"The height of the balloon is a quadratic function of time."

Evidence: stuff to which you will refer when explaining why your claim is true. For example:
Data tables, graphs, fitted equations, and previous claims that you have verified.

Reasoning: explanation of how your evidence supports your claim. For example:
The plot of height vs. time data appeared to be quadratic and when we fit a quadratic to it using LoggerPro we found the resulting curve closely matched the data points.

How-To Tips:

Use a blank piece of paper to sketch a chain of claims leading from raw data to the resulting symbolic model. Use the chain to structure your writing.

1. We go from raw data to symbolic model... so narrate that trip.
2. Think of that trip as a sequence of steps... each step is a claim supported by evidence explained by reasoning.
3. For some claims, the reasoning will involve calculations.
4. Good Form:
 - Show your calculations, don't just give a numerical result.
 - Explain your calculations, don't just put numbers on a page.
 - Sequence reads like a story line, with a plot. Not a random walk.

The Initial Evidence Doctrine in North American Pentecostal Churches Kenneth Richard Walters, 2019-08-26 The modern Pentecostal movement has been studied many times in relation to its theological and sociological background Previous studies however have not focused on the distinctive doctrine of that movement the teaching that speaking in tongues is the initial physical evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit Given that Pentecostals believe that this is a work of grace such a doctrine seems unlikely to arise as physical evidence is seldom required or looked for in the life of a believer in relation to any other area of grace This prompts the question of why such evidence was even being looked for And yet within a very short time of its proposal acceptance of this doctrine was so widespread as to become the hallmark of the movement Insistence on such a doctrine led to many being asked to leave their denominations and thus to the founding of other denominations This book attempts to answer the question Why And specifically Why Tongues Answers to Your Biggest Questions About Teaching Middle and High School ELA Matthew Johnson, Matthew R.
