Far Flung and Well Fed R. W. Apple, 2010-12-07 Celebrated journalist R W Johnny Apple was a veteran political reporter a New York Times bureau chief and an incisive and prolific writer But the role he was most passionate about was food anthropologist Known both for his restless wideopen mind and an appetite to match Apple was also a culinary scholar witty wide ranging and intensely knowledgeable about his subjects Far Flung and Well Fed is the best of legendary Times reporter Apple's food writing from America England Europe Asia and Australia Each of the more than fifty essays recount extraordinary meals and little known facts of some of the world's most excellent foods from the origin of an ingredient in a dish to its history to the vivid personalities including Apple's wife Betsey who cook serve and eat those dishes Far Flung and Well Fed is a classic collection of food writing lively warm and rich with a sense of place and taste and deserves to join the works of A J Liebling Elizabeth David M F K Fisher and Calvin Trillin on the bookshelf

Exploring Community Festivals and Events Allan Jepson, Alan Clarke, 2014-10-17 The development of the festival and event industry has seen large scale growth and extensive government support as a result of objectives to enhance and project the image of place and leverage positive sponsorship and regeneration opportunities As we move deeper into austerity measures prompted by economic recession community festivals and events as a sacred or profane time of celebration can be considered even more important than ever before This book for the first time explores the role and importance of community culture and its impact through festivals and events Split into two distinct sections the first introduces key themes and concepts contextualises local traditions and culture and investigates how festivals and events can act as a catalyst for tourism and create a sense of community It then questions the social and political nature of festivals and community events through examining their ownership The second section focuses on communities themselves seeking to examine and discuss key emerging themes in community event studies such as the role of diaspora imagined communities pride and identity history producing and consuming space and place authenticity and multi ethnic communities Examples are drawn from Portugal the Dominican Republic the USA Malaysia Malta Finland and Australia making this book truly international This significant volume will be valuable reading for students and academics across the fields of Event Tourism and Hospitality studies as well as other social science disciplines

Icebergs Dining Room and Bar 2002-2022 Maurice Terzini, 2022-11-30 Celebrating 20 years of Icebergs Dining Room and Bar the food cocktails music art and personalities that have celebrated one of Sydney's most iconic restaurants Icebergs Dining Room and Bar is an icon standing sentinel over Bondi Beach and the powerful Pacific Ocean Despite the beauty the path from concept to restaurant was not always straightforward What Maurice Terzini was asking people to see wasn't there and he wanted to keep it that way The ocean was to be the hero the rest in essence was to remain invisible A place where conversations dominate the food where art music and beauty all share a place at that table Of course the food and drink have to be world class as do the design and service To be on par with that ocean you need to be irreproachable It's been challenging but it's also been the greatest of honours This book tells the story of the past 20 years of that custodianship There are tales of people personalities and the influences that shaped the idea a collection of our best known recipes from two decades of head chefs cocktails from our award winning bar and playlists from summers gone by See the restaurant through the eyes of acclaimed architect Carl Pickering peer into the minds of six of Australia's best chefs from Karen Martini to Monty Koludrovic read about why a great wine list is about so much more than the wine and then take a little taste of the indefinable magic Maurice's treatise on his signature rules of hospitality There is so much that goes into making a restaurant disappear much of it enclosed within these pages
