Robert J. Stefan,2020-02-23 We are pleased to offer this fifth title in our APTS Press Monograph Series This is the publication of the author s doctoral dissertation done through the Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne Indiana USA The purpose of this series is to give our readers broader access to good scholarship that would otherwise be unavailable outside of the academic community This is part of our ongoing commitment to discipleship through publishing Christian mission organizations have enthusiastically embraced business as a means of entry for Christian workers who might not otherwise be able to get into these nations especially MMNs However the embracing of business raises some immediate concerns In light of existing tensions between business and Islam won t missions connected businesses be under the same cloud of conflict More importantly isn t the Gospel put under this cloud thereby negatively impacting the spread of the kingdom of God Also if the business and mission companies expatriate owners and employees are western especially American won t the conflicts inevitably intensify And if so are there ways such entities can be operated in order to minimize the conflict with Islamic sensitivities This book will address these and other related questions

The Kingdom of God in Working Clothes R. Paul Stevens,2022-08-05 Work occupies most of our waking time whether it is in a factory office school or at home But unfortunately most people of faith separate their working life from their worshipping life Dualism is a pernicious heresy that has infected believers worldwide namely that church work and missionary service are holy and our everyday work is secular In this timely volume Stevens explores the connection of the kingdom of God the master thought of Jesus with the marketplace Traditionally people have either related the kingdom of God God s new world coming either exclusively for the present or only for the distant future But it is both now and coming This gives meaning hope and endurance to our work in the world So daily labor in the marketplace gets reoriented through salty values and ingrained virtues We become double agent spies exploring the new world coming in everyday life We can also grapple helpfully with the resistance we face daily in the workplace There are many books on the kingdom of God and many on work Few have brought these two vital arenas of everyday service together It is indeed part of the good news      "Kingdom-Minded" People Denise Austin,2011-09-20 During the early twentieth century in China a number of key economic leaders converted to Christianity Whilst strongly influenced by cultural heritage powerful modernizing forces and tumultuous political changes the new Christian identity inculcated by Protestant missionaries motivated these entrepreneurs to modify their business practices improve their social environment and extend the influence of Christianity Protestant and Catholic sojourners likewise made significant contributions into their adopted communities With unprecedented economic growth in China today a fascinating contemporary parallel can be seen particularly through the influence of Pentecostal charismatic and evangelical training Previous research has explored the emergence of the urban Christian lite in modern China However this systematic study provides new understanding of how Christian identity motivates Chinese business Christians toward economic social and religious contribution      Doing God's Business R. Paul Stevens,2006-08-10 Stevens explores the potential of business as both a location for practicing everyday spiritual disciplines and a source of creativity and deeper relationship with God This volume should encourage and challenge businesspersons in all segments of the marketplace to more faithfully integrate their faith and work lives
