Morfum (Pty Ltd is a large furniture retailer, which has a number of stores situated throughout Kwa-Zulu Natal. You are the manager in charge of the audit of this company, for their current financial year, which ends on 31 August 2014. You are busy with the final stages of planning for this audit in the second week of August and you are concerned, particularly with the audit of accounts receivable.

The financial manager Joshua Couch has informed you that Morfum (Pty) Ltd have appointed Thuli Madumbi a qualified chartered accountant, as internal auditor. She commenced working for Morfum (Pty) Ltd on 1 August 2014 and has been familiarizing herself with the internal controls. Thuli Madumbi has three years of internal audit experience and is a member of the Institute of Internal Auditors. Her objective will be to improve some of the controls.

Your full audit team will begin work on the Morfum (Pty) Ltd audit on 15 September 2014, but Joshua Couch is quite happy to assist and support you in applying any audit procedures which may facilitate the audit and which you may feel are necessary prior to this date. Joshua Couch has indicated to you that he would like the audited financials to be completed by the end of October 2014, but that he is flexible in this regard.

Client: Morfum (Pty Ltd	Prepared by: Victor Mapfield	Date prepared: 2 August 2014	L 06
Year ended: 31 August 2014	Reviewed by: Tandarai Mthetho	Date reviewed: 6 August 2014

A review of the audit working papers for the previous financial year and discussions with Joshua Couch, the financial manager of Morfum (Pty Ltd revealed that:

1. Accounts receivable is a material balance.
2. The company had experienced a number of problems with debtors who gave fictitious details or who simply disappeared while still owing substantial amounts of money. Many such cases were only brought to light by the audit procedures which your firm carried out at the previous year-end. Your discussions with Joshua Couch, suggest that a similar situation is likely to exist again for the current year.
3. The accounting staff in the accounts receivable department are all relatively inexperienced and have little in the way of formal qualifications. Staff turnover in this department has been rather high over the past two years, as management offer unattractive salaries and few incentives for these positions. As a result,

 Arturo Hermann,Simon Mouatt,2020-10-07 Heterodox economics can provide a more complete and robust explanation of economic realities than orthodox or mainstream economics Contemporary Issues in Heterodox Economics Implications for Theory and Policy Action argues that this greater explanatory power gives heterodox economics the ability to illuminate appropriate policy for the major crises of our time as well as proffer the basis for a more rounded pluralist approach to economic theory The chapters in this wide ranging volume address some of the key issues facing the global economy including the growing disparity of income wealth between persons and economic areas environmental degradation issues associated with employment and the regularity of economic financial crises The authors examine potential policy responses such as modern monetary theory models of public ownership and the need to move beyond standard concepts of growth They also explore the deficiencies of orthodox economics and contend that a more pluralist approach to economics is required in
