

FINAL EXAM STUDY GUIDE

HELPFUL TIPS:

- Read everything on the final exam. Read ALL instructions, introductions, captions, footnotes, etc.
- Review all literary devices. Be sure you can come up with your own example for each. Also, be sure you can recognize literary devices when you see them.
- Know the meaning of basic question words, such as: infer, assume, illustrate, assertion, antecedent, excerpt, rhetorical question, restrictive, implication, and conclude.
- When you see the word EXCEPT in a question, it usually means that there are multiple right answers and you are to choose the incorrect answer.

Section 1: Passage Analysis

In this section, you will be required to read a passage from a novel you have read this semester. You will also be required to read and compare themes in an essay and a poem you haven't read. After each piece, there will be multiple-choice questions that ask you to analyze the readings.

Section 2: Literary Terms

For this section you should know and be able to identify the following terms:

1. Allegory- a story which can be understood on two levels. Common characters stand for something larger than themselves, leading to a second deeper meaning.
2. Aside- a comment in a play made to either the audience or another character. There are other characters on the stage during an aside, but only the audience or a specific character can hear the comment. It usually helps explain the plot, treachery, or character motivation.
3. Connotation- the feelings associated with a word. Ex: pungent; people usually associate this word with a bad smell, when really it just means a strong smell.
4. Denotation- the dictionary definition of a word
5. Denouement- the resolution of a play or novel. This is the point in the plot where all loose ends are tied up and conflicts are resolved.
6. Dialect- when an author writes something exactly as it would be said. Usually this will involve incorrect grammar and accents. This was used heavily with Tess' parents in Hardy's novel.
