Humanity Against Itself The Retreat From Reason:

Humanity Against Itself Benjamin Kovitz, M.D., 2012-04-30 In this broad overview of humanity's predicament psychiatrist Benjamin Kovitz illustrates the parallels between anxiety in the individual and discord in civilization as a whole Kovitz emphasizes that civilization rests upon the precarious foundation of human nature with its age old tendencies toward self deception violence and pursuit of power He argues that resistance to facing our hidden motives is what lies at the core of political and religious strife as well as individual anxiety At the heart of the book is an illuminating chapter on the meaning of anxiety explaining with clarity and detail how the pathology arises how it is expressed and how it can be relieved The complexities of the condition are portrayed in vivid clinical examples often using the patients own words Kovitz takes issue with the current practice of relying solely on psychiatric medication without addressing the patient's understanding of what his or her symptoms mean On the societal level Kovitz shows how evasion of reality complicates our efforts at progress and peaceful coexistence despite the advances of science and democracy and how defensive behavior among nations can culminate in war Turning to religion Kovitz explores the psychological underpinnings of our need for religion and briefly summarizes the major world faiths with an eye to their underlying attitudes and assumptions While pointing out the contradictions inherent in a literal approach to religious dogma the author appreciates the need for faith that transcends logic In a psychiatric evaluation of the life of Saint Teresa of Avila Kovitz recognizes pathological anxiety yet respects the therapeutic value of her religious visions Writing with eloquence while avoiding psychological jargon Kovitz elucidates our human dilemmas with a clarity and depth that can help us move toward sanity in an unpredictable and troubled world

The War Against Marxism Tony McKenna, 2021-05-06 Marxism has provided the ideological impetus to liberation movements radical struggles and revolutions across the world But in the 20th century the emancipatory and democratic power of its thought has often been distorted and overridden by various Stalinist dictatorships which claimed to be acting in its name A similar undermining of freedom of thought has been accomplished at an intellectual level various schools have transformed Marxist thought in line with some of the most fashionable but gentrified forms of contemporary philosophy shifting the focus from the democratic power of the masses and their ability to challenge the capitalist order to concentrate on superstar thinkers and elite theories The War Against Marxism traces the war against Marxism which paradoxically has been conducted in the name of Marxism itself As such it provides a fiery philosophical and polemical indictment of so called Marxists such as Adorno Horkheimer Althusser Jameson Eagleton Mouffe Laclau and Zizek and asks what can be done to stem this counterrevolution

Self-Construction and the Formation of Human Values Teodros Kiros, 2001-01-30 This volume presents a theoretical defense of the potential of ordinary individuals to construct values and through them to become self empowering responsible participants in a democratic community Rather than conceiving of power as domination the author identifies true power as self empowerment a notion based on self construction He proposes the vision of an authentically free self filled with a compassion that is a composite of reason and feeling Such a composite self does not consciously manipulate language truth and desire to dominate and subordinate other individuals but uses them to construct values and norms that can enrich others To support his argument the author draws on both classical and contemporary philosophers as well as on literary sources Technology and the Contested Meanings of Sustainability Aidan Davison, 2001-04-19 This discussion responds to the work of Langdon Winner Albert Borgmann Charles Taylor Martin Heidegger David Abram and others

BOOK JACKET God, Revelation and Authority (Set of 6) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 A monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done Philosophy, Literature and the Human Good Michael Weston, 2003-09-02 In this provocative new examination of the philosophical moral and religious significance of literature Michael Weston explores the role of literature in both analytic and continental traditions He initiates a dialogue between them and investigates the growing importance of these issues for major contemporary thinkers Each chapter explores a philosopher or literary figure who has written on the relation between literature and the good life such as Derrida Kierkegaard Murdoch and Blanchot Challenging and insightful

Philosophy Literature and the Human Good is ideal for all students of philosophy and literature Human Rights and Personal Self-defense in International Law Jan Arno Hessbruegge, 2017 While an abundance of literature covers the right of states to defend themselves against external aggression this is the first book dedicated to the right to personal self defense in international law Dr Hessbruegge sets out in careful detail the strict requirements that human rights impose on defensive force by law enforcement authorities especially police killings in self defense The book also discusses the exceptional application of the right to personal self defense in military led operations notably to contain violent civilians who do not directly participate in hostilities The author establishes that international law gives individuals the right to forcibly resist human rights violations that pose a serious risk of significant and irreparable harm At the same time he calls into question prevailing state practice which fails to recognize any collective right to organized armed resistance even when it constitutes the last resort to defend against genocide or other mass atrocities

The Unity of Theology Theodore James Whapham, 2017-11-01 Wolfhart Pannenberg is among the most important Protestant Continental theologians of the twentieth century This volume offers the first full historical and thematic survey of Pannenberg's corpus from his early work in Christology and eschatology to his writings on science anthropology theology and the university and the pivotal achievement of his systematic theology As such the project will make a significant contribution to theological assessment and will be a useful text for students and scholars in modern and contemporary theology Natural Causes Bradford Morrow, 2015-06-30 New takes on nature by award winning poets and writers from Russell Banks to Lily Tuck and many more In Natural Causes a provocative collection of radical reinventions of the genre of nature writing we encounter shrimp farms and spoonbills maize husks and Austrian woods tarantulas and eels multitudinous winds that pollinate or desiccate nature in all its myriad forms right down to photons neutrons neutrinos and yes even Godzilla the Sasquatch and some of nature's other fictive and folkloric monsters

Against Apocalypse Fred Dallmayr, 2015-12-24 The book denounces the irresponsible recklessness of some geopolitical agendas which are pushing the world relentlessly toward a major global war and possibly toward nuclear destruction or apocalypse The Bulletin of Atomic Scientists has recently placed the Doomsday Clock at three minutes to midnight Signs pointing toward a possible grand disaster are multiple everywhere one looks in our world today one finds ethnic and religious conflicts bloody mayhem incipient genocide proxy wars and hybrid wars renewal of the Cold War Add to these ills global economic crises massive streams of refugees and the threats posed by global warming and the picture of a world in complete disorder is complete Thus it is high time for humankind to wake up Starting from the portrayal of global anomie the book issues a call to people everywhere to oppose the rush to destruction and to return to political sanity and the quest for peace This is a call to global public responsibility In ethical terms it says that people everywhere have an obligation to prevent apocalypse and to maintain our world or hold the world together in all its dimensions including the dimensions of human and social life natural ecology and human spiritual aspirations or openness to the divine Differently out in lieu of the prevailing disorder and brokenness the book urges us to search for a new wholeness and just peace The book is intercultural and also interdisciplinary Since the aim is holistic to hold the world together the book necessarily has to draw on many disciplines including philosophy theology social science history and literature In terms of Western philosophical and intellectual legacies it draws mainly on the teachings of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida It also offers a completely new interpretation of the work of Thomas Hobbes unearthing in this work an ethical demand to exit from the state of perpetual warfare in the direction of a shared commonwealth The text also relies on the teachings of Christian theology both Catholic and Protestant invoking at crucial junctures the works of Karl Barth Raimon Panikkar and others In terms of non Western intellectual and spiritual legacies the book offers new interpretations of leading texts in the Indian and Chinese traditions Thus emphasis is placed on the ideas of world maintenance loka samgraha in Hinduism and of All Under Heaven in classical Chinese thought Although a central thrust of the text is for a new wholeness the goal is not a uniform synthesis where everything would be swallowed up in a bland unity Rather the issue is how to preserve diversity of the world in its rightful integrity by linking all elements in a complex web of interconnections and relationality

Natural Law and Human Dignity Ernst Bloch, 1986 Ernst Bloch was one of the most original and influential of contemporary European thinkers leaving his mark in fields ranging from philosophy and social theory to aesthetics and theology This book represents a unique attempt to reconcile the traditional oppositions of the natural law and social utopian traditions providing basic insights into the meaning of human rights in a socialist society

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1982-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world

Truth and Revolution in Marx's Critique of Society Matthias Bohlander, Anna-Sophie Schönfelder, Matthias Spekker, 2023-01-31 This book deals with a central aspect of Marx's critique of society that is usually not examined further since it is taken as a matter of course its scientific claim of being true But what concept of truth underlies his way of reasoning which attempts to comprehend the social and political circumstances in terms of the possibility of their practical upheaval In three studies focusing specifically on the development of Marx's scientific critique of capitalist society his journalistic commentaries on European politics and his reflections on the organisation of revolutionary subjectivity the authors carve out the immanent relation between the scientifically substantiated claim to truth and the revolutionary perspective in Marx's writings They argue that Marx does not grasp the world as it is but conceives it as an inverted state which cannot remain what it is but generates the means by which it can eventually be overcome This is not something to be taken lightly Such a concept has theoretical political and even violent consequences consequences that nevertheless derive neither from a subjective error nor a contamination of an otherwise pure science By analyzing Marx's concept of truth the authors also attempt to shed light on a pivotal problematique of any modern critique of society that raises a reasoned claim of being true

Secular Steeples 2nd edition Conrad Ostwalt, 2012-09-27 An exploration of secularization in America this book provides students with an innovative way of understanding the relationship between religion and secular culture In Secular Steeples Conrad Ostwalt challenges long held assumptions about the relationship between religion and culture and about the impact of secularization Moving away from the idea that religion will diminish as secularization continues Ostwalt identifies areas of popular culture where secular and sacred views and objectives interact and enrich each other The book demonstrates how religious institutions use the secular and popular media of television movies and music to make sacred teachings relevant From megachurches to sports arenas the Bible to Harry Potter biker churches to virtual worship communities Ostwalt demonstrates how religion persists across cultural forms secular and sacred with secular culture expressing religious messages and sometimes containing more authentic religious content than official religious teachings An ideal text for anyone studying religion and popular culture each chapter provides questions for discussion a list of important terms and guided readings

Philosophical Foundations Friedrich Julius Stahl, 2022-01-12 Philosophical Foundations is an introduction to the philosophy of law but it also furnishes the foundations for a Christian philosophy In this ethically discombobulated time it provides us with the metaphysical and ethical tools to slash our way through the wilderness of ideologies and power craving opinions which threaten to overwhelm civilization Indeed a solid metaphysical and ethical framework is the crying need of our age and the indispensable presupposition for the various arts and sciences that make up the encyclopedia circle of learning The most basic datum such a framework can provide is very simply the either or of a personal God from Whom all things originated or an ultimate reality that is impersonal That is the starting point for inquiry And it cannot be the case that the decision for an impersonal ultimate reality is a requirement for science Functional atheism can be no requirement for participation either in academia or in public life and policymaking Is science truly science that ignores the most basic fact of existence the existence of God It cannot be so If there were a God and He created the world should that not be accepted because it is unscientific If reason really did not carry the world in itself and could not find the world out by itself would it nevertheless have to remove the world from itself because that alone would be scientific One might just as well require on the basis of science that man should not be born but rather should exist from eternity or that man should feed himself from himself without food or that the eye should see of itself without objects and their impressions from outside Scientificness demands that you be gods but the fact is that you are only human do you have to comply with scientificness Is it the trick to explain the world without God in and for itself regardless of whether the explanation is sufficient is this the essence and the glory of the scientific character It is no subjection of science to authority if one expects of it that its knowledge should correspond to the object No natural scientist will want to avoid the fact that his teaching must pass the test of the phenomena of nature and yet the philosopher should have the privilege of his teaching merely being seen as logically consistent in order to be considered true even if contradicted by all the facts even if it leaves the great object it is supposed to solve untouched The proof of the pudding is in the eating for the Christian worldview is the only key that unlocks the riddle of life the only explanation of the otherwise unfathomable reality in which we live

Nietzsche and German Philosophy Otfried Höffe, 2021-02-18 A collection of newly translated essays representing the finest post war German scholarship on Nietzsche

Against Life Alastair Hunt, Stephanie Youngblood, 2016-03-15 The contributors to Against Life think critically about the turn to life in recent theory and culture Editors Alastair Hunt and Stephanie Youngblood shape their collection to provocatively challenge the assumption rife throughout the humanities that life needs to be cultivated affirmed and redeemed The editors and their contributors explore how we might be better off daring to think ethics and politics as well as the project of the humanities in more radical terms as a refusal to choose life What forms of equality and freedom might emerge if we did not organize being together under signs of life Taken together the essays in Against Life mark an important turn in the ethico political work of the humanities

Sustaining Architecture in the Anti-Machine Age Ian Abley, James Heartfield, 2001 The issue of sustainability is one of the guiding principles of contemporary architecture This book brings together contributions from architects journalists academics and consultants to discuss sustainability from a wide range of viewpoints with a focus on commercial development

Against Progress Slavoj Žižek, 2024-10-31 To define progress is to lay claim to the future Seminal thinker Slavoj Žižek turns essayist to interrogate the competing visions which form the horizons of human possibility and ask Can things which have never seemed worse get better What would a better world be And how when we are constantly besieged by doomers degrowthers and disorienting relativisms can we make any headway at all in the face of unprecedented ecological social and political crises In thirteen iconoclastic essays Slavoj Žižek disrupts the death grip that neoliberalists Trumpian populists toxic self improvement industries and accelerationists alike have established on the idea of progress Anatomizing what is lost when opponents of the future are allowed to define it Žižek ruthlessly exposes what different visions of progress exclude or sacrifice and the dynamics of desire denial and disavowal at work in Hollywood blockbusters Buddhist economics decolonization movements and other engines of vision In a whirlwind tour that takes in everything from gentrification to the theory of relativity Lacan to Lenin Putin to Mary Poppins and Marine Le Pen to the end of the world these essays never stop asking hard questions of imagined futures Nor does Žižek shrink from the hardest question of all How do we free ourselves from the hypocritical guilt ridden dreaming in which we are enmeshed and begin to build a better world
