

A black and white photograph of a person standing on a rooftop, looking out over a city and a body of water under a cloudy sky. The person is seen from behind, wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. The city below is densely packed with buildings, and a large body of water is visible in the distance. The sky is filled with clouds.

The road to Brexit Ina Habermann, 2020-05-18 This collection explores British attitudes to Continental Europe that explain the Brexit decision Addressing British European entanglements and the impact of British Euroscepticism the book argues that Britain is in denial about the strength of its ties to Europe The volume brings together literary and cultural studies history and political science in an integrated analysis of views and practices that shape cultural memory Part one traces the historical and political relationship between Britain and Europe whilst Part two is devoted to exemplary case studies of films as well as popular Eurosceptic and historical fiction Part three engages with border mindedness and Britain s island story The book is addressed both to specialists in cultural studies and a wider audience interested in Brexit

Embers of Empire in Brexit Britain Stuart Ward,Astrid Rasch,2019-07-25 While the British Empire is long gone it survives as a recurring flashpoint in heated debates about the present and future of Britain and the nations over which Britain once ruled Embers of Empire in Brexit Britain turns a critical eye to the widely held notion that the long shadow of the imperial past has much to answer for and asks to what extent should the residual after effects of Britain s colonial empire be taken at face value From the Rhodes must fall controversy and contested anniversaries to immigration scares and the question of what Britishness is in a post imperial world an eclectic mix of expert researchers writers and commentators consider the legacy of the British empire in the battle over Brexit As the United Kingdom haggles its way out of the European Union and casts about for an alternative future this volume shows how the memory of the empire is still as potent a political force as ever National Intelligencer Newspaper Abstracts, Special Edition, The Civil War Years, Volume 2 Joan M.

The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, 2012-08-26. The most important poetry reference for more than four decades, now fully updated for the twenty-first century. Through three editions over more than four decades, The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics has built an unrivaled reputation as the most comprehensive and authoritative reference for students, scholars, and poets on all aspects of its subject: history, movements, genres, prosody, rhetorical devices, critical terms, and more. Now this landmark work has been thoroughly revised and updated for the twenty-first century. Compiled by an entirely new team of editors, the fourth edition, the first new edition in almost twenty years, reflects recent changes in literary and cultural studies, providing up-to-date coverage and giving greater attention to the international aspects of poetry, all while preserving the best of the previous volumes. At well over a million words and more than 1,000 entries, the Encyclopedia has unparalleled breadth and depth. Entries range in length from brief paragraphs to major essays of 15,000 words, offering a more thorough treatment, including expert synthesis and indispensable bibliographies, than conventional handbooks or dictionaries. This is a book that no reader or writer of poetry will want to be without. Thoroughly revised and updated by a new editorial team for twenty-first-century students, scholars, and poets, more than 250 new entries cover recent terms, movements, and related topics. Broader international coverage includes articles on the poetries of more than 110 nations, regions, and languages. Expanded coverage of poetries of the non-Western and developing worlds. Updated bibliographies and cross references. New, easier-to-use page design. Fully indexed for the first time.

Technology in Mediterranean and European Lands, 600-1600 Pamela O. Long, 2025-04-15. How medieval and Renaissance technology shaped Mediterranean and European society across a millennium. In Technology in Mediterranean and European Lands, 600-1600, Pamela O. Long explores the intricate web of technological advancements that shaped Mediterranean and European societies during the medieval and early modern periods. From the essential crafts of ploughing and tailoring to the sophisticated hydraulic systems and monumental building constructions, Long illuminates how ordinary people harnessed and transformed their world. Drawing on recent scholarship on environmental history and the history of technology, as well as materials, object biographies, and the circulation of objects, Long examines the circulation of ideas and technologies in Europe and the Mediterranean. The book covers the evolution of food production, transportation, and communication, as well as the crafting of pottery, weapons, and machines. This in-depth historical analysis shows how these technological advancements had profound social and economic impacts on everyday life. Long's meticulous research and engaging narrative bring to light the interconnectedness of various crafts and their contributions to the broader tapestry of human history. By integrating archaeological findings, historical texts, and modern scientific methods, the book offers an interdisciplinary perspective on the technological practices of the pre modern world Perfect for scholars students and history enthusiasts Technology in Mediterranean and European Lands 600 1600 emphasizes the ingenuity and resilience of past civilizations and the enduring legacy of technological innovation
