The Dissolution of the Family in "Pocho" Compared to "Mona in the Promised Land" Patrick Geiser,2010-03-19 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2 3 University of Freiburg course Ethnic Novel in American Literature language English abstract Index I Introduction 1 II Pocho 2 1 Background to the Novel 2 2 2 Territorial Obscurity 2 2 3 Education 4 2 4 Richard s Relation to his Parents 4 2 5 The Dissolution of the Family 6 III Mona in the Promised Land 9 3 1 Background to the Novel 9 3 2 Mona s Relation to her Parents 9 IV Conclusion 13 V Bibliography I Introduction This term paper deals with two pieces of American immigrant literature of different culture political background time and setting The novel Pocho by Jose Antonio Villareal published in 1959 was the first Chicano novel It was written primarily for an Anglo American audience in order to explain the life of a Pocho Villareal wrote the novel without any guideline as no one had entered this political vacuum before 1 The novel Mona in the Promised Land by the Chinese American writer Gish Jen published in 1996 introduces us into the multicultural life of the predominantly Jewish New York suburb of Scarshill in 1968 I will show in this term paper that despite the many differences in the two novels there also are many commonalities and parallels what life and the problems between the two protagonists and their parents concerns I will furthermore try to present in detail that the familiar sorrow in both novels is closely connected with the complex conflict of generations within two cultures as well as the protagonist s search for identity that results from this In the first part I will analyze Richard s changing relationship towards his parents In the second part I will show that also Mona despite her completely different background and environment faces similar problems which finally lead to the break up with predominantly her mother Furthermore I will expose that Mona and Richard share common interests and ways At the end of my work I will finally compare the parallels but also show differences between the two novels II Pocho 2 1 Background to the Novel The term Pocho is an expression for a Mexican who is born and raised in the United States It is used with an abusive connotation to describe Mexican Americans in the USA Pochos are often perceived by Mexicans to be badly educated and without a proper sense of culture Jose Antonio Villarreal s novel Pocho is set after the Mexican Revolution of 1910 when millions of Mexicans migrated to the USA in order to get work by the so called first Bracero Program

Melting Pots & Mosaics: Children of Immigrants in US-American Literature Rüdiger Heinze, 2017-12-15 In the past decades children of immigrants have drawn increased attention not only in press and media but also in a number of academic fields among them sociology history or ethnology Surprisingly literary and cultural studies have been somewhat more reluctant to approach the topic While there is work on individual authors or at the very most particular ethnic groups comparative approaches are rare This monograph aims to amend this It provides an extensive discussion of US American literature about children of immigrants comparing different authors different ethnic groups and different literary and historical contexts
