

Book Report/Review

The book report is a longer more involved writing about a book that has been read. It is not just a summary. The major purpose of a book report/review for most academic assignments is to report on the nature and quality of the content. You may include (in fact you should) feelings and opinions. You do express your reaction to the book; you can make judgments. The report is written from your point of view. A response to any reading will be based on the reader's experience, knowledge, and interpretation. The response may be an evaluation of form and/or content. It may be a personal application of the ideas to one's life. It may be an analysis of the possible effects that the article might have on readers within and outside of the field. It is important to know very clearly who the audience is for your book review and what your purpose is in writing for that audience.

Some questions to ask yourself regarding audience:

Who is my reader?

How much, in anything, does the reader already know about the book, or the topic the book deals with?

Since I cannot tell everything about the book , what are the key ideas I want to get across?

Do I want my reader to be persuaded that the book has some major strengths or weaknesses?

Do I want my reader to understand better some aspects of the book—its structure, its approach to the problem, its underlying assumptions?
