Interview Essay

The best way to learn is through asking questions. In this assignment, I was directed to interview three "classes" of people in my field, from whom I can gain advice. To do this, I was required to interview a published professor, an upperclassman, and a graduate student (teaching assistant), in the field that I am studying at Ohio State University.

Of the groups of people I was required to interview, the upperclassman was the easiest to find. Before coming to Ohio State, I had known quite a few people who were older than me and who went to Ohio State. Many of these people were in my major, and had offered to help me if I needed; of these people, I found one who was in my field physics. It was difficult to find the
