The Paul Virilio Reader Paul Virilio,2004 If nothing else the war in Iraq and the 1991 Gulf War have taught us much about media and technology as key players in how war is waged packaged for public consumption and exported in real time to the rest of the globe A critic of the art of technology Paul Virilio has keenly observed that media images quite often constitute a strategy of war and that accident is becoming indistinguishable from attack For more than fifty years Virilio has offered incisive and provocative criticism on technology and its moral political and cultural implications Yet until now much of his work originally published in French remains elusive in full English translation The Paul Virilio Reader collects for the first time English extracts reflecting the entire range of Virilio s diverse career The book s introduction demonstrates that Virilio has produced an important if controversial theory at the speed of light that uncannily illuminates the impact of new information and communications technologies in a world that collapses time and distance as never before The inventor of dromology which views speed as a defining concept for contemporary civilization Virilio is noted for his proclamation that the logic of ever increasing acceleration lies at the heart of the organization and transformation of the contemporary world Arranged chronologically the Reader illustrates the development and interconnectedness of Virilio s work Each extract is prefaced by bibliographical and contextual commentary and the book includes an innovative guide to reading Virilio resilience in the media As argued in the book if audiences function as the central problematic that engenders anxieties and self policing amongst producers can the audience become a surrogate for the authoritarian state Overcoming fear of The American Robert Ellis Thompson, Wharton Barker, 1888 Errors, False Opinions and Defective Knowledge in Early Modern Europe Marco Faini ,Marco Sgarbi,2024 This volume offers a series of insights into the fascinating topic of errors and false opinions in early modern Europe It explores the semantic richness of the category of error in a time when such category becomes crucial to European thought and culture During decades of increasing normativity in the social and religious sphere as well as in the epistemological status of disciplines recognizing and correcting error becomes an imperative task whose importance can hardly be overestimated. Medicine and General Practice Clinics Frank Pierce Foster, 1920 Emotional Minds Sabrina Ebbersmeyer, 2012-07-30 The thoroughly contemporary question of the relationship between emotion and reason was debated with such complexity by the philosophers of the 17th century that their concepts remain a source of inspiration for today s research about the emotionality of the mind The analyses of the works of Descartes Spinoza Leibniz and many other thinkers collected in this volume offer new insights into the diversity and significance of philosophical reflections about emotions during the early modern era A focus is placed on affective components in learning processes and the boundaries between emotions and Liberating Kosovo David L. Phillips, 2012-07-20 A compelling account of the diplomatic and military actions that reason led to Kosovo s independence and their implications for future U S and UN interventions Kosovo after its incorporation into the Serbian Republic of Yugoslavia became increasingly restive during the 1990s as Yugoslavia plunged into internal war and Kosovo s ethnic Albanian residents Kosovars sought autonomy In March 1999 NATO forces began airstrikes against targets in Kosovo and Serbia in an effort to protect Kosovars against persecution The bombing campaign ended in June 1999 and Kosovo was placed under transitional UN administration while negotiations on its status ensued Kosovo eventually declared independence in 2008 Despite internal political tension and economic problems the new nation has been recognized by many other countries and most of its inhabitants welcome its separation from Serbia In Liberating Kosovo David Phillips offers a compelling account of the negotiations and military actions that culminated in Kosovo's independence Drawing on his own participation in the diplomatic process and interviews with leading participants Phillips chronicles Slobodan Milosevic s rise to power the sufferings of the Kosovars and the events that led to the disintegration of Yugoslavia He analyzes how NATO the United Nations and the United States employed diplomacy aerial bombing and peacekeeping forces to set in motion the process that led to independence for Kosovo He also offers important insights into a critical issue in contemporary international politics how and when the United States other nations and NGOs should act to prevent ethnic cleansing and severe human rights abuses Balthasar and Anxiety John R. Cihak, 2011-10-20 This study offers a theological response to the problem of anxiety from the point of view of Hans Urs von Balthasar It is a systematic presentation analysis and development of Balthasar's original theology of anxiety found in his only work on the subject Der Christ und die Angst The study takes a thematic approach based upon the four types of analysis found in Der Christ und die Angst phenomenological anthropological theological and ecclesial These four approaches to the topic correspond to the phenomenon origins redemption and transformation of anxiety Through this thematic approach Balthasar's thought is examined in relation to some of the important figures on anxiety The phenomenon of anxiety is presented in relation to modern psychiatry The examination of anxiety s origins places him in dialogue with Kierkegaard on anxiety from discursive reasoning and Freud on anxiety from ego consciousness The redemption of anxiety places Balthasar in relation to Aquinas in order to clarify Balthasar's interpretation and to show its significance in the theological tradition. The transformation of anxiety places our author in dialogue with Luther on the shape of anxiety in the Christian life The final chapter begins to unravel the construct of anxiety with a brief exploration of how it is transformed in the Church according to Balthasar something he had never explicitly developed The influence of Bernanos on Balthasar s thought is felt throughout the study The entire study is framed by the two Gardens wherein transpire the most significant events concerning anxiety for Balthasar the Garden of Eden and the Garden of Gethsemane
