Transfer Pricing Aspects of Intra-Group Financing Raffaele Petruzzi,2013-10-20 For corporate managers maximization of the profits and the market value of the firm is a prime objective The logical working out of this principle in multinational enterprises has led to an intense focus on transfer pricing between related companies principally on account of the very attractive tax advantages made possible Inevitably numerous countries have established transfer pricing legislation designed to combat the distortions and manipulations that are inherent in such transactions This important book one of the first in depth analysis of the current worldwide working of transfer pricing in intra group financing and its resonance in law presents the relevant issues related to loans financial guarantees and cash pooling analyses an innovative possible approach to these issues and describes new methodologies that can be implemented in practice in order to make intra group financing more compliant with efficient corporate financing decisions and the generally accepted OECD arm s length principle

Comparing the tax measures implemented in the corporate tax law systems of forty countries this study investigates such aspects of intra group financing as the following corporate finance theories studies and surveys regarding financing decisions application of the arm's length principle to limit the deductibility of interest expenses impact of the OECD's Base Erosion and Profit Shifting BEPS project transfer pricing issues related to intra group financing credit risk in corporate finance rationales utilized by credit rating agencies and the assessment of arm's length nature of intra group financing The author describes ways in which the application of the arm's length principle can be strengthened and how the related risk of distortion and manipulation can be minimized The solutions and methodologies proposed are applicable to any business sector Given that determination of the arm's length nature of transactions between related companies is one of the most difficult tasks currently faced by taxpayers and tax administrations around the world this thorough assessment and analysis will prove extraordinarily useful for in house and advisory practitioners corporate officers academics international organizations and government officials charged with finding effective responses to the serious issues raised In addition to its well researched analysis the book's comparative overview of how loans financial guarantees and cash pooling are currently addressed by OECD Member States and by their national courts is of great practical value in business decision making

The Taxing Road to Sustainable Growth: Resource Productivity and Corporate Taxation Mark Bowler Smith, 2013 This book explores one way in which a tax system might help promote competitiveness and sustainable development Focusing on the UK corporation tax it recommends the introduction of a Resource Productivity Tax Credit where resource productivity is defined as the money value of outputs relative to the money value of material resource and non renewable energy inputs The book is structured such that it first explores the legal mandate to promote competitiveness and sustainable development as contained in article 33 of the Treaty of the European Union It then explores what competitiveness and sustainable development actually mean particularly in an EU policy context through the lenses of Europe 2020 and the EU Sustainable Development Strategy It concludes that not only is there a great deal of common ground between competitiveness and sustainable development as objectives but that increasing resource productivity is a necessary means to those shared ends After exploring EU tax policy and the relevant rules of the UK corporation tax for evidence of any kind of focus on competitiveness and sustainable development as well as examining the suitability of corporate income taxes as policy instruments for increasing resource productivity the book concludes that there is ample scope for a statutory tax incentive to be appended to the UK corporation tax to help fulfil the article 33 mandate The headline objective of the Resource Productivity Tax Credit is to promote higher resource productivity in the trading activities of individual companies in particular targeted sectors through improvements to the knowledge base of those companies rather than through the increased use of raw materials non renewable energy and or intermediate goods
