Freak Of Nature Lost Witch Trilogy 1 Katie Lee Oguinn:

Freak of Nature Katie Lee O'guinn, 2012-10-29 Sarah Hudson refuses to believe she's a witch regardless of what her aunt says. She prefers to call it psychokinesis. Sarah has been an outcast since her early teens because of her power. Labeling herself a witch would only make her life even more unbearable. But on the first day of school, a new boy named Zane Miner recognizes her power and decides that he's going to take her under his wing, whether she likes it or not. Since he's gorgeous and just as powerful as she is, she's very tempted to let him. But her pull towards another loner threatens her new relationship. Lash Crossly, a boy Sarah has spent the last ten years sticking up for, has changed in more than one way over the summer. He's gone from wimpy and weak to strong and hot, and he's determined to change their relationship from friends to something more. But Sarah holds back, either because of Zane or because of the darkness she senses in him. She knows he's not safe. When he admits that he's given in to Blutausch, Sarah is determined to help him overcome his addiction. But when a girl dies, she wonders if she's too late. As Sarah starts to accept her power, she begins to realize that there are many people who would use her and break her into darkness. She must protect herself from her aunt, from Bloodlust, and from an evil that's determined to control her. Sarah must turn to her new friends, her father, and especially Zane if she's going to survive the darkness and find the freedom and happiness she's always craved. Freak of Nature is a Young Adult Paranormal book that reaches across all realms of experience and life.
