Family Communication about Genetics Clara L. Gaff,Carma L. Bylund,2010 Genetics is in all senses a family affair The diagnosis of a genetic condition affects not only the patient and biological family members who may themselves be at risk but also family more generally as support may be sought from those considered kin and who may or may not be at risk themselves It is considered best practice in genetic consultations to explore who will be informed within the family when a genetic condition or risk is diagnosed particularly when the health of other family members is at risk There is little guidance or consensus on how to achieve the implicit goal of informed family members while respecting patient confidentiality however There is a need for practitioners to be aware of the dynamics of family communication and to have guidance about how they may sensitively facilitate communication about genetics within families This handbook facilitates the development of clinical practices relating to family communication about genetics Relevant theories of family communication are summarized and related to a clinical genetics milieu and from this frameworks for practitioners are presented A book of this nature is particularly timely as the completion of the Human Genome Project will result in an unprecedented amount of information about genetic constitution and health risks becoming available to individuals and their families The presence of a potentially genetic condition in a family is not a new phenomenon However the growth in testing for genetic conditions common complex conditions and variants that may influence health as well as drug metabolism means that a greater number of individuals will face decisions about communicating this information to their relatives Many health professionals in all levels of health care will be confronted with issues of responsibility and practice in family communication about genetic information as they become providers of this testing

Engineering the Human Bert Jaap Koops,Christoph H. Lüthy,Annemiek Nelis,Carla Sieburgh,J.P.M. Jansen,Monika S. Schmid,2013-02-12 The volume is collection of articles treating the topic of human improvement enhancement from a variety of perspectives philosophical literary medical genetic sociological legal etc The chapters in this volume treat not only those aspects that most immediately come to mind when one thinks of human enhancement such as genetic engineering cloning artificial implants and artificial intelligence etc Somewhat less obvious aspects include evolutionary perspectives in connection with the prolongation of the human lifespan plastic surgery since its beginnings and questions such as whether the distinction between natural and artificial can really be drawn at all and how it has been conceived across the ages or what the legal implications are of recent developments and techniques Many papers make links to the representation of these developments in popular culture from Jules Verne through Aldous Huxley to the movie Gattaca address the hopes and fears that come with them as well as the question how realistic these are While all chapters are written by scientists at the international top of their respective fields all are accessible to a non specialist audience and eminently readable We believe that they represent a state of the art overview of questions that are of interest to a large audience The book thus targets a non specialist audience with an interest in philosophical sociological scientific and legal issues involved in both traditional and recent matters concerning the desire of mankind to improve itself the human body the human mind and the human condition It is unique in that it brings together all these aspects within a coherent and cohesive collection

Disease and Democracy Peter Baldwin, 2005 A historical masterpiece Just when we thought we knew everything about the politics and policies of the HIV AIDS pandemic Peter Baldwin surprises us with innovative insights about the sharp differences in policy among countries as well as complex tradeoffs between civil liberties and public goods This is a refreshing and readable book in which AIDS is used as a lens to understand the public health enterprise ranging from leprosy and syphilis to tuberculosis and SARS Baldwin offers a deeply historical and comparative understanding of HIV in the industrialized world Lawrence O Gostin author of Public Health Law Power Duty Restraint Although a vast literature has emerged to chronicle and reflect on the history of the AIDS epidemic since it was first reported almost a quarter of a century ago there is nothing like Peter Baldwin s probing and synthetic analysis of AIDS in the industrialized world Building on his masterful Contagion and the State in Europe 1830 1930 Baldwin has provided a complex historical tapestry of how an epidemic threat has challenged and exposed democracies that thought infectious threats a thing of the past Ronald Bayer author of Private Acts Social Consequences Aids and the Politics Of Public Health and coauthor with Gerald Oppenheimer of AIDS Doctors Voices from the Epidemic Philosophy Through Film Mary M. Litch, 2002 Philosophy Through Film offers a stimulating new way to explore the basic questions of philosophy Each chapter uses a popular film to examine one such topic from free will and skepticism to personal identity and artificial intelligence in an approachable yet philosophically rigorous manner A wide range of films are discussed including more recent releases like Being John Malkovich Total Recall and Boys Don't Cry and classics like Rashomon and Crimes and Misdemeanors all readily available through major video rental chains This unique and engaging introduction provides an exciting new way to learn about philosophy and connects complicated philosophical questions to the familiar settings of popular culture Governance of Health Care Innovation. Excursions into Politics, Science and Citizenship. Klasien Horstman, Bart Penders, Ewan Dow, Biochemistry Mary K. Campbell, Shawn O. Farrell, 2003 Noted for their ability to demonstrate the connection between biochemistry and students lives the authors draw students into the material with stellar coverage of the latest research The standard setting illustration program enhances students understanding Who's Afraid of Human Cloning? Gregory E. Pence, 1998 Gregory Pence offers a candid look at the arguments for and against human cloning Imagining Surveillance Peter Marks, 2015-06-23 Presents the first full length study of the depiction and assessment of surveillance in literature and film
