Geography Pnov 2013

David L. Phillips

Geography Pnov 2013:

The Geopoetics of Modernism Rebecca Walsh, 2015-01-27 The Geopoetics of Modernism is the first book to illuminate the links between American modernism and the geographic discourse of the time Rebecca Walsh explores Walt Whitman Gertrude Stein Langston Hughes and H D s engagements with contemporary geographic theories and sources including the cosmological geography of Alexander von Humboldt and Mary Somerville the environmental determinism of Ellen Churchill Semple and mainstream textbooks and periodicals which informed the formal and political dimensions of their work Walsh argues that the dominant geographic paradigms of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries gave authority to experimental writers who were breaking with other forms of authority enabling them to create transnational forms of belonging on the exhilarating landscape of nations continents and the globe By examining modernism alongside environmental determinist geography she maps a poetic terrain where binaries such as west versus non west or imperial center versus colonial periphery are destabilized The Geopoetics of Modernism reveals the geographic terms through which American modernist poetry interrogated prevailing ideas of orientalism primitivism and American exceptionalism

Rethinking Climate Change, Conflict and Security Jan Selby, Clemens Hoffmann, 2017-10-02 Is global climate change likely to become a significant source of violent conflict and should it therefore be seen as a national security challenge Most Northern governments militaries think tanks and NGOs believe so as do many academic researchers on the grounds that increased temperatures changing precipitation patterns and rising sea levels will worsen existing social stresses especially within poor societies and marginal communities across Africa and Asia This book argues otherwise The first collection of its kind it brings together leading scholars of Anthropology Geography Development Studies and International Relations to provide a series of critical analyses of mainstream thinking on the climate security nexus It shows how policy discourse on climate conflict consistently misrepresents the causes of violence especially by obscuring its core political dimensions It demonstrates that quantitative research provides a flawed basis for understanding climate conflict linkages It argues that climate security discourse is in hoc with a range of questionable military authoritarian and developmental agendas And it reveals that the greening of global capitalism is already having violent consequences across the global South Climate change the book argues does indeed have serious conflict and security implications but these are quite different from how they are usually imagined This book was published as a special issue of Geopolitics

The Unions' Response to Globalization Gary Chaison, 2014-07-08 Globalization is commonly described in trade and cultural terms but its impact on unions and collective bargaining is seldom assessed The few studies of unions and globalization are mostly collections of cases studies of how unions can work together or with other alliance partners to defend against the power of multinational corporations This book goes beyond the current research by asking how unions have tried to deal with globalization and how globalization might threaten the fundamental union mission of taking wages hours and conditions of employment out of competition The introductory chapter defines globalization and uses the case of the Detroit Three automakers GM Chrysler and Ford to show how globalization can affect employment and union size influence and relevancy The second chapter shows how unions deal globalization through collective bargaining regarding outsourcing alliances strikes and political action including lobbying and international work standards The final chapter argues that the unions cannot continue unchanged in this age of globalization and asks what they must do to be effective and relevant

The Kurdish Spring David L. Phillips, 2017-07-05 Kurds are the largest stateless people in the world An estimated thirty two million Kurds live in Kurdistan which includes parts of Turkey Iraq Syria and Iran today s hot spots in the Middle East The Kurdish Spring explores the subjugation of Kurds by Arab Ottoman and Persian powers for almost a century and explains why Kurds are now evolving from a victimized people to a coherent political community David L Phillips describes Kurdish rebellions and arbitrary divisions in the last century chronicling the nadir of Kurdish experience in the 1980s He discusses draconian measures implemented by Iraq including use of chemical weapons Turkey s restrictions on political and cultural rights denial of citizenship and punishment for expressing Kurdish identity in Syria and repressive rule in Iran Phillips forecasts the collapse and fragmentation of Iraq He argues that US strategic and security interests are advanced through cooperation with Kurds as a bulwark against ISIS and Islamic extremism This work will encourage the public to look critically at the post colonial period recognizing the injustice and impracticality of states that were created by Great Powers and offering a new perspective on sovereignty and statehood

Automotive Recycling, Plastics, and Sustainability David Schönmayr, 2017-05-31 This book provides transdisciplinary analyses of the automotive plastics production and recycling system including prognoses scenarios and solutions for corporate sustainability management A book on plastics not written by a plastics guy But a sustainability guy Plastics schizophrenia and the automotive abyss The industry is facing a severe challenge It is the inevitable and promising change towards a sustainable economy However the automotive industry is primarily concerned with the CO2 emissions from cars when driving while the rise of lightweight plastics electric drive and heavy batteries make the production and end of life phase ever more important Therefore the currently increasing use of non sustainable virgin plastics in cars has to be tackled The plastics and the automotive industry now have a chance and this chance is the Recycling Renaissance This book offers Holistic and transdisciplinary overview on sustainability and automotive plastics from all angles including economy ecology technology and politics with a focus on Europe Concise analyses prognoses tools and a roadmap with solutions for companies developed together with international experts from industry and academia Strong scientific basis and independent research including a Europe wide survey expert interviews and workshops More than 80 illustrations and 15 tables including a SCOT analysis Executive summaries after each chapter for fast reading The uniqueness of this book lies within the different point of view on this topic from a critical outstanding scientist Univ Prof Dipl Ing Dr mont Pomberger Montanuni Leoben New Perspectives on Corporate Social Responsibility Linda O'Riordan, Piotr Zmuda, Stefan Heinemann, 2015-04-14 Providing a timely contribution to the ongoing questions surrounding topics which are by definition subject to varying stakeholder interpretations this book addresses the missing link between theoretical CSR concepts and everyday management practice It acts as a guide to awaken managers to the advantages of adopting a CSR mindset when developing sustainable business strategies The book consists of three parts 1 A theoretical realm which establishes the key concepts and rationale for the adoption of a sustainable CSR approach 2 A practical realm which addresses putting CSR and sustainability into business practice 3 An educational realm which proposes how to incorporate the concepts into teaching and training

Imagined Landscapes Jane Stadler,Peta Mitchell,Stephen Carleton,2015-12-21 An analysis of the depiction of Australia s landscape in its films and literature Imagined Landscapes teams geocritical analysis with digital visualization techniques to map and interrogate films novels and plays in which space and place figure prominently Drawing upon A Cultural Atlas of Australia a database driven interactive digital map that can be used to identify patterns of representation in Australia s cultural landscape the book presents an integrated perspective on the translation of space across narrative forms and pioneers new ways of seeing and understanding landscape It offers fresh insights on cultural topography and spatial history by examining the technical and conceptual challenges of georeferencing fictional and fictionalized places in narratives Among the items discussed are Wake in Fright a novel by Kenneth Cook adapted iconically to the screen and recently onto the stage the Australian North as a mythic space spatial and temporal narrative shifts in retellings of the story of Alexander Pearce a convict who gained notoriety for resorting to cannibalism after escaping from a remote Tasmanian penal colony travel narratives and road movies set in Western Australia and the challenges and spatial politics of mapping spaces for which there are no coordinates It will likely be the indispensable touchstone for any future work in these areas with respect to Australian cultural studies Robert T Tally Texas State University Definitely original in its approach since it combines a conceptual approach with a more applied one The book is a serious contribution to the field of mapping spatial narratives and to a better understanding of the production and spatial structure of fictional places S bastien Caquard Concordia University

This volume is based on the recognition that heritage is popular and popular culture is now readily transformed into heritage whose meanings and myths reshape social life and political and economic realities as well as re make tradition The papers in this volume consider What does popular heritage look like To whom does it speak Is it active in dissolving class and cultural boundaries or just in reproducing new ones How do societies manage a heritage that is fluid immediate and that straddles extremes of serious conflict and hedonistic frivolity When under what circumstances is the creation and expression of new cultural forms popular culture capable of being transformed into heritage Space and Time Visualisation Maria Boştenaru Dan, Cerasella Crăciun, 2016-07-19 This book explores expertise relevant for two working groups of NeDiMAH a European Science Foundation ESF funded Research Networking Programme It examines mapping methods procedures tools criticism awareness challenges and solutions around the concepts of Space and Time and Information Visualization The chapters explore digital methods in the representation of natural disasters industrial design cultural and the history of architecture The conclusions link to related research and present suggestions for further work including representing landscape not just as another 3D model but as historic evolution with specialised tools Handbook of Ocean Container Transport Logistics Chung-Yee Lee, Qiang Meng, 2014-12-13 This book is focused on the impact of ocean transport logistics on global supply chains It is the first book solely dedicated to the topic linking the interaction of parties along this chain including shippers terminal operators and line carriers While ocean container transport logistics has been greatly studied there are many important issues that have yet to receive the attention they deserve The editors and contributing authors of Ocean Container Transport Logistics Making Global Supply Chain Effective seek to address these topics and shed new light on the subject The book is divided into three parts Part I examines the innovation trends competition and business model of container terminal operations In Part II the book looks at how tactical and operational management is used in shipping liners The chapters cover topics such as empty container repositioning slow steaming routing network design and disruption management Finally Part III explores at shippers and global supply chain management with chapters on transportation service procurement hinterland transportation green corridors as well as competition and co operation in maritime logistics operations The eighteen chapters of the book all highlight the immediate effect of ocean transport logistics on global supply chain Page and Place: Ongoing Compositions of Plot Jon Anderson, 2014-10-15 If people are geographical beings what can fiction tell us about this truth This book explores how literature can help us understand the nature of the relations between people and place how humans create connections between their identities and their geographies and how these can be threatened and lost Literature is an important if unusual way to explore these relations At once centred in imagination and ideas fiction is also indelibly connected to as well as influenced by the geographies in which it is set As this book argues the relationship between fiction and location is so important that it is often difficult to know which is imagined and which is real Exploring the relations between people and place through fiction writing set in Wales Page and Place garners poetic insight into how places are written into our stories and how these stories take and make the places around us The book introduces the notion of plot to describe the complex entanglement between fiction and geography and to help understand the role that places play in defining human identity Adaptive Water Management Farideh Delavari Edalat, M. Reza Abdi, 2017-09-05 This book explores a new framework of Adaptive Water Management AWM for evaluating existing approaches in urban water management It highlights the need to adopt multidisciplinary strategies in water management while providing an in depth understanding of institutional interactions amongst different water related sectors The key characteristics of AWM i e polycentric governance organisational flexibility and public participation are investigated and described through a critical review of the relevant literature The book presents an empirical case study undertaken in a selected developing country city to investigate the potential gaps between the current water management approaches and possible implementation of AWM Feasibility of AWM operations is examined in an environment surrounded by established water management structure with centralised governance and an institutional process based on technical flexibility The key elements of AWM performance are re structured and transformed into decision support systems Multi criteria decision models are developed to facilitate quantification and visualization of the elements derived from the case study which is involved with water companies and water consumers The book describes how the concept of AWM along with structuring suitable decision support systems can be developed and applied to developing country cities The book highlights the barriers for applying the AWM strategies that include established centralised decision making bureaucratic interactions with external organisations lack of organisational flexibility within the institutions and lack of recognition of public role in water management The findings outline that despite the lack of adaptability in the current water management in the case study as an example of developing countries there are positive attitudes among water professionals and the public towards adaptability through public institutional participation
