loving white evangelical church attending and ministry leading wife and mom living in a small town in the Pacific Northwest She came into the election determined to vote Republican but when she saw the video of Donald Trump mocking a disabled journalist she hurled herself off the Trump train and never looked back Shunned by some in her conservative evangelical community her world was shattered and her faith tested as she was forced to reevaluate the Christian institutions she devoted her life to Disoriented and confused by the church's embrace of a man who is the antithesis of Jesus Hawk turned to the Scriptures for answers Part Bible study and part personal faith journey The Judas Effect is about the selling out of Christian values for political gain It's about how buoyed by Trumpism the message ringing from church bells across America has morphed from goodwill toward men to it's us against them By sharing her own faith crisis Hawk casts a vision for the evangelical church that steers us away from Judas's power lust toward a Christ-centered mission of servitude humility compassion and kindness

Ten Commandments for Pastors Leaving a Congregation Lawrence W. Farris, 2006 Pastoral transitions can be fraught with pitfalls, yet there is advice that can help ministers and congregations avoid those dangers. Lawrence Farris, a pastor who himself has left three churches, here gives ten wise, thoughtful commandments for shepherds leaving their flock. Far from heavy-handed dictums, these commandments are more gospel than law, laying out helpful strategies in such areas as recognizing when to depart, patching broken relationships, and enabling the next pastor to make a clean start. While many may dream of a comfortable long-term pastorate, today's transient congregational realities make the wisdom in this book relevant for pastors in churches big and small, liberal, moderate, and conservative. Perfect for pastors soon
