Michael Rajnik

Google Time Table Senior Certificate 2015:

On Becoming a Teen Mom Mary Patrice Erdmans, Timothy Black, 2015-02-06 In 2013 New York City launched a public education campaign with posters of frowning or crying children saying such things as I m twice as likely not to graduate high school because you had me as a teen and Honestly Mom chances are he won t stay with you Campaigns like this support a public narrative that portrays teen mothers as threatening the moral order bankrupting state coffers and causing high rates of poverty incarceration and school dropout These efforts demonize teen mothers but tell us nothing about their lives before they became pregnant In this myth shattering book the authors tell the life stories of 108 brown white and black teen mothers exposing the problems in their lives often overlooked in pregnancy prevention campaigns Some stories are tragic and painful marked by sexual abuse partner violence and school failure Others depict girl next door characters whose unintended pregnancies lay bare insidious gender disparities Offering a fresh perspective on the links between teen births and social inequalities this book demonstrates how the intersecting hierarchies of gender race and class shape the biographies of young mothers
