Grade 12 Afrikaans Short Stories Poppie:

Journal of Southern African Studies 20th Anniversary Conference ,1994 Institutions of World Literature Stefan Helgesson,Pieter Vermeulen,2015-06-19 This volume engages critically with the recent and ongoing consolidation of world literature as a paradigm of study On the basis of an extended active and ultimately more literary sense of what it means to institute world literature it views processes of institutionalization not as limitations but as challenges to understand how literature may simultaneously function as an enabling and exclusionary world of its own It starts from the observation that literature is never simply a given but is always performatively and materially instituted by translators publishers academics and academics critics and readers as well as authors themselves This volume therefore substantiates refines as well as interrogates current approaches to world literature such as those developed by David Damrosch Pascale Casanova and Emily Apter Sections focus on the poetics of writers themselves market dynamics postcolonial negotiations of discrete archives of literature and translation engaging a range of related disciplines The chapters contribute to a fresh understanding of how singular literary works become inserted in transnational systems and conversely how transnational and institutional dimensions of literature are inflected in literary works Focusing its methodological and theoretical inquiries on a broad archive of texts spanning the triangle Europe Latin America Africa the volume unsettles North America as the self evident vantage of recent world literature debates Because of the volume s focus on dialogues between world literature and fields such as postcolonial studies translation studies book history and transnational studies it will be of interest to scholars and students in a range of areas Kaapse bibliotekaris ,1998 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Pacific Automobolism Gijs Mom,2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West s media driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car s status character Imperial Leather Anne McClintock,2013-10-01 Imperial Leather chronicles the dangerous liaisons between gender race and class that shaped British imperialism and its bloody dismantling Spanning the century between Victorian Britain and the current struggle for power in South Africa the book takes up the complex relationships between race and sexuality fetishism and money gender and violence domesticity and the imperial market and the gendering of nationalism within the zones of imperial and anti imperial power Race, Nation, Translation Zoë Wicomb,2018-11-20 The first collection of nonfiction critical writings by one of the leading literary figures of post apartheid South Africa The most significant nonfiction writings of Zo Wicomb one of South Africa s leading authors and intellectuals are collected here for the first time in a single volume This compilation features critical essays on the works of such prominent South African writers as Bessie Head Nadine Gordimer Njabulo Ndebele and J

M Coetzee as well as writings on gender politics race identity visual art sexuality and a wide range of other cultural and political topics Also included are a reflection on Nelson Mandela and a revealing interview with Wicomb In these essays written between 1990 and 2013 Wicomb offers insight on her nation s history policies and people In a world in which nationalist rhetoric is on the rise and diversity and pluralism are the declared enemies of right wing populist movements her essays speak powerfully to a wide range of international issues The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Bulletin of the National Library of South Africa ,2014 The Bounds of Race Dominick LaCapra,2018-08-06 The concept of race is central to one of the most powerful ideological formations in history Dominick LaCapra argues in his introduction to this volume and understanding the effects of that ideology and its intricate relations with issues of class and gender is one of the most pressing challenges to contemporary modes of thought The eleven essays comprising The Bounds of Race confront this challenge with insight rigor and imagination The authors take on questions of language genre and politics with reference to African American Anglo American African South African Francophone North African British and Afro Hispanic texts Individual chapters discuss writings from an array of genres including homily autobiography the novel children s literature and political and scientific discourse Taken together the essays argue persuasively that the existing canon must be expanded that the protocols of interpretation must be transformed to make a prominent place for such issues as race and that the problem of interpretation cannot be posed in the absence of theoretically informed modes of historical investigation The Bounds of Race provides a subtle analysis of the variable role of racial ideologies and traces the interplay between hegemonic constraints and the strategies of resistance to them The Bloomsbury Guide to Women's Literature Claire Buck,1992 Provides biographies novel synopses poems plays and essays by or about women and discusses feminist literature
