John Lorne MacDougall

History Of Northeast Margaree:

History of Northeast Margaree John F. Hart, 1963 North East Margaree : a Detailed History Johnston, C. H. C, 194? A history of Northeast Margaree Nova Scotia with family histories of its settlers History of Nova Scotia David Allison, 1916 Vernacular architecture in the Codroy Valley Richard MacKinnon, 2002-01-01 This book relates the story of a small Newfoundland community as told through its buildings From the addition of a kitchen to the construction of a new house the way people build and change their homes says a great deal about their histories and daily lives and the author's insights on the stories told in the architecture of the Codroy Valley are sure to encourage readers to look at their own communities in a new way Published in English Cape Bretoniana Beaton Institute of Cape Breton Studies, 2005-01-01 Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island is a beautiful region with a unique community whose history and ethnic composition have resulted in the evolution of a powerful sense of identity and place While outsiders may think only of the island's perennial economic woes and long economic dependence on coal mining and steel production it is also the home of a rich vibrant and distinct culture Brian Douglas Tennyson's Cape Bretoniana is the first bibliography to gather together all known publications relating to the history culture economy and politics of Cape Breton Island With more than 6000 entries it not only provides a comprehensive listing of publications and post graduate theses but also detailed annotations on the listings Each entry lists the author title place of publication publisher date of publication volume and issue number in the case of periodicals and page references followed by a brief description of the item Cape Breton has never been so thoroughly documented This bibliography will help to ensure that even in a world becoming increasingly homogenized by the forces of globalization unique cultural identities like Cape Breton's can be preserved and nurtured Beyond the Atlantic Roar Donald Fraser Campbell, Douglas F. Campbell, R. A. MacLean, 1974 Blending the skills of sociology and history the authors focus on the changing values of the Scots and the threatened disappearance of their distinctive lifestyle Dictionary of Cape Breton English William J. Davey, Richard MacKinnon, 2016-01-01 The first regional dictionary devoted to the island's linguistic and cultural history the Dictionary of Cape Breton English is a fascinating record of the island's rich vocabulary The Directory of Museums & Living Displays Kenneth Hudson, Ann Nicholls, 1985-06-18 Old and New World Highland Bagpiping John Graham Gibson, 2002 Old and New World Highland Bagpiping provides a comprehensive biographical and genealogical account of pipers and piping in highland Scotland and Gaelic Cape Breton The work is the result of over thirty years of oral fieldwork among the last Gaels in Cape Breton for whom piping fitted unself consciously into community life as well as an exhaustive synthesis of Scottish archival and secondary sources Reflecting the invaluable memories of now deceased new world Gaelic lore bearers John Gibson shows that traditional community piping in both the old and new world Ghealtachlan was and for a long time remained the same exposing the distortions introduced by the tendency to interpret the written record from the perspective of modern post eighteenth century bagpiping Following up the argument in his previous book Traditional Gaelic Bagpiping 1745-1945 Gibson traces the shift from tradition to modernism in the old world through detailed genealogies focusing on how the social function of the Scottish piper changed and step dance piping progressively disappeared. Old and New World Highland Bagpiping will stir controversy and debate in the piping world while providing reminders of the value of oral history and the importance of describing cultural phenomena with great care and detail. History of Inverness County, Nova Scotia John Lorne MacDougall, 1922
