

Hunger Games: Dialectical Journals

As you read the story you will write a short entry for each chapter. You will write down a line, quote, or scene that you liked, disliked or found thought provoking from the novel The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins. Also include the page number.

Then write a brief paragraph about why you chose it (e.g., I liked it..., I didn't like it..., it made me think of..., etc.). You will meet with members of your district groups every three chapters throughout the novel to share these passages and ideas with your group members.

Example:

Passage Entry	Why did you choose it?
"I think he still remembers how I tried to drown him in a bucket when Prim brought him home. Scrawny, kitten, belly as often with sores, crawling with fleas. The last thing I needed was another mouth to feed." Page # 2	This passage makes me sad, and truly reveals the level of hunger that exists in The Seam. The fact that when Prim first brought home a kitten, Katniss's first reaction was to try and kill it. Even the small amount of food a cat would normally eat couldn't be spared. They were so close to starvation that she tried to kill their pet in order to guarantee a slightly higher chance of survival. This passage shows the importance of food in The Hunger Games, and how it is a powerful motivator.

Emotional Ethics of The Hunger Games Tarja Laine, 2021-05-17 Emotional Ethics of The Hunger Games expands the ethical turn in Film Studies by analysing emotions as a source of ethical knowledge in The Hunger Games films It argues that emotions incorporated in the thematic and aesthetic organization of these films reflect a crisis in moral standards As such they cultivate ethical attitudes towards such phenomena as totalitarianism the culture of reality television and the society of spectacle The focus of the argument is on cinematic aesthetics which expresses emotions in a way that highlights their ethical significance running the gamut from fear through guilt and shame to love anger and contempt The central claim of the book is that these emotions are symptomatic of some moral conflict which renders The Hunger Games franchise a meaningful commentary on the affective practice of cinematic ethics The Hunger Games movies have become iconic symbols for resistance across the globe Tarja Laine proposes that this is not caused by their status as exciting cinematic spectacles but by their engaging our emotions Laine uses The Hunger Games as key texts for understanding our world demonstrating that ethics do not originate from rational considerations far removed from those mucky things called emotions But rather that emotions are at the core of cinematic ethics William Brown Author of Supercinema Film Philosophy for the Digital Age In this elegantly written exploration of the relationship between aesthetics and emotion in The Hunger Games trilogy Tarja Laine illuminates the power of film to embody ethical conflict Deftly interweaving film philosophy and close analysis Laine traces how these films mobilise complex emotions nuancing our thinking about cinema and the spectator Laine's book takes The Hunger Games films seriously demonstrating with verve why they matter Catherine Wheatley Senior Lecturer in Film Studies King's College London UK In this fresh engaging and insightful study of The Hunger Games film trilogy Tarja Laine explores the crucial role that emotions play in appreciation of the ethical qualities of the movies She forges productive dialogues between a range of film theory scholarship on moral philosophy and debates on ethics as she performs a multi layered investigation of the aesthetic qualities of the trilogy the multiple emotions embodied in these qualities and the philosophical ethical insights that are in turn embedded in these emotions The cinematic connection between emotions and ethics that emerges through Laine's detailed textual analyses confronts us with complex moral dilemmas while enriching our aesthetic experience Sarah Cooper Professor Film Studies Department King's College London UK
