The Aesthetics of Mandé Hunting Tradition in African Fiction Amadou Ouédraogo, 2017 From its medieval origins to the present Mand culture in West Africa is known for its highly intriguing art and tradition of hunting undeniably one of its most conspicuous distinctive features Totally entrenched in myth legend and history firmly grounded in the supernatural the divine and the abstruse hunting is altogether a cult a ritual gesture a token of allegiance to divine forces Considered to be a dauntless intrusion of man into the realm of metaphysics and the unknown the hunting vocation transcends by far the confines of human and tangible spheres This study examines various articulations of the hunting art and tradition as they are conveyed in numerous African literary and cinematographic works It elucidates the mythical and supernatural magnitude of the hunting activity by showing how it is presided over by immutable deities and tutelary figures Held to be endowed with infrangible supernatural and esoteric proportions hunting is deemed to be a reflection of Mand people's worldview a vibrant expression of how they perceive and articulate their existence as part of and in relation to the world From all perspectives traditional hunting in Mand society is viewed as a noble dignified and revered activity sustained by a vehement sense of brotherhood esprit de corps faithful loyalty compassion munificence It encompasses a set of principles and values enjoined by transcendent forces in illo tempore and meant to serve as timeless paradigmatic ideals to be preserved and handed down along generations By persistently echoing the magnificence of the hunting art and tradition African artists place the vocation at the heart of contemporary Africans yearning quest for origins identity and plenitude

Gerald Kennedy,Leland S. Person,2014-06-26 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a 12 volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction and written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements traditions and tendencies In thirty four essays this volume reconstructs the emergence and early cultivation of the novel in the United States Contributors discuss precursors to the U S novel that appeared as colonial histories autobiographies diaries and narratives of Indian captivity religious conversion and slavery while paying attention to the entangled literary relations that gave way to a distinctly American cultural identity The Puritan past more than two centuries of Indian wars the American Revolution and the exploration of the West all inspired fictions of American struggle and self discovery A fragmented national publishing landscape comprised of small local presses often disseminating odd experimental forms eventually gave rise to major houses in Boston New York and Philadelphia and a consequently robust culture of letters Dime novels literary magazines innovative print technology and even favorable postal rates contributed to the burgeoning domestic book trade in place by the time of the Missouri Compromise Contributors weigh novelists of this period alongside their most enduring fictional works to reveal how even the most American of novels sometimes confronted the inhuman practices upon which the promise of the new republic had been made to depend Similarly the volume also looks at efforts made to extend American interests into the wider world beyond the nation s borders and it thoroughly documents the emergence of novels projecting those imperial aspirations The posthumous works of ... John Howe, ed. by J. Hunt John Howe,1832 Metaphor Competition in the Book of Job Lance R. Hawley,2018-03-26 Within the book of Job the interlocutors Job the friends and Yahweh seem to largely ignore one another s arguments This observation leads some to propose that the dialogue lacks conceptual coherence Lance Hawley argues that the interlocutors tangentially and sometimes overtly attend to previously stated points of view and attempt to persuade their counterparts through the employment of metaphor Hawley uses the theoretical approach of Conceptual Metaphor Theory to trace the concepts of speech and animals throughout the dialogue Beyond explaining the individual metaphors in particular texts he shows how speech metaphors compete with one another most perceptibly in the expressions of Job's words are wind With regard to animal metaphors coherence is especially perceptible in the job is a predatory animal metaphor In these expressions the dialogue demonstrates intentional picking up on previously stated arguments Hawley argues that the animal images in the divine speeches are not metaphorical in spite of recent scholarly interpretation that reads them as such Rather Yahweh appears as a sage to question the negative status of wild animals that Job and his friends assume in their significations of people are animals This is especially apparent in Yahweh's strophes on the lion and the wild donkey both of which appear multiple times in the metaphorical expressions of Job and his friends *A Dictionary of the English Language ...
