Ally, Mohamed Amin Embi, Helmi Norman, 2019-02-26 This book provides theoretical and empirical discussions around the impact of MOOCs and other pedagogical strategies for online learning in international contexts Through discussions of inverse blended learning and other teaching and learning approaches Part I navigates the pressing conceptual issues around global online education By analyzing the Malaysia MOOC Initiative the first governmental MOOC project in the world Part II offers insight into the developmental strategies learning design and integrative approaches of these pioneering efforts Edited by leading scholars in the field of globalized online learning this volume offers a valuable contribution to research around collaborative initiatives between governments and universities especially ones dedicated to open and distance education

Dynamics of Violent Extremism in South Asia Shafi Md Mostofa, 2023-02-02 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the multifaceted dimensions of violent extremist groups in South Asia attending especially to the relationships between the local and regional forces influencing their emergence and activities In addition research in the book shows how political security sensitive events and processes are framed and the factors responsible for such framing Similarly it discusses prevalent discourses on anti violent extremism policy and the on the ground militarized preventive reactive interventions they guide which are inspired by ideologies that increasingly reflect controversial understandings of the experiences of people within conditions of state fragility In doing so the book balances attention to local conditions that frame the rise and fall or persistency of incidences of violent extremism The systems based ecological framing of issues in the book is influenced by a concern for the broader questions of securitization global governance poverty under development and armed conflicts in South Asia Recalibrating teacher training in African higher education institutions Sifiso

Sibanda, Gideon (Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimaged to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark An Unfamiliar America Ari Helo, Mikko Saikku, 2020-11-12 This collection focuses on conceptions of the unfamiliar from the viewpoint of mainstream American history aliens immigrants ethnic groups and previously unencountered ideas and ideologies in Trumpian America The book suggests bringing historical thinking back to the center of American Studies given that it has been recently challenged by the influential memory studies boom As much as identity building appears to be the central concern for much of the current practice in American history writing it is worth keeping in mind that historical truth may not always directly contribute to one's identity building The researcher's constant quest for truth does not equate to already possessing it History changes all the time because it consists of our constant reinterpretation of the past It is only the past that does not change This collection aims at keeping these two apart while scrutinizing a variety of contested topics in American history from xenophobic attitudes toward eighteenth century university professors Apache masculinity Ku Klux Klan Tom Waits's lyrics and the politics of the Trump era

The Freemason's Chronicle, 1899 Quarterly Index to Periodical Literature, Eastern and Southern Africa Library of Congress. Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya, 2000 Borrowed Land, Stolen Labor, and the Holy Spirit Diane T. Feldman, 2025-07-15

Borrowed Land Stolen Labor and the Holy Spirit The Struggle for Power and Equality in Holmes County Mississippi chronicles the profound history of a low income county that became a pivotal site for Delta organizing during the civil rights movement Landowning African American farmers who enjoyed more economic independence than sharecroppers emerged as the grassroots leaders of the movement The volume begins with the county's Native American heritage moving through the periods of removal land sales to speculators the rapid increase of enslaved labor in the nineteenth century and early African American political engagement during Reconstruction Author Diane T Feldman explores how African Americans fostered cooperative landownership efforts in the 1880s and 1920s alongside the development of schools and churches particularly the Church of God in Christ a denomination founded in Holmes County The fight for voting rights started with African American farmers in the 1950s and gained momentum with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Their struggle to desegregate schools culminated in the landmark Supreme Court case Alexander v Holmes which abolished dual school systems in the South The final chapters cover the past sixty years and current initiatives to restore food production in the Mississippi Delta Enriched with recent and historic photographs this volume serves as a microhistory of a single county illuminating broader themes prevalent throughout Mississippi and the rural South
