Journal Entry Essay

I have learned about many issues through the journal assignments. Because it required discussing an article about relevant American politics every week, I became more informed about what was going on in my country. However, after studying politics in this class, the lack of knowledge and concern that I and those around me have towards politics is both infuriating and depressing.

For one, the voting and representation system that our country has in place to elect those in power is majorly flawed. Our elections operate via a winner-takes-all approach, where the candidate who gets the majority vote wins while the runner-up does not get anything for their efforts. The main issue with voting that I have is the electoral college. They are the representatives who vote for president as well, but they do not necessarily have to vote the way that their constituents want them to. In addition, the electoral college vote holds more weight than the popular vote, which is where our votes go towards. For example, Hillary Clinton won the popular vote by a decent margin in the 2016 presidential election, but Donald Trump won the electoral vote so he became president. This system, originally designed so that the well-educated could have a larger say in politics, is flawed because it does not represent the majority. Even if not all the voters are educated in politics, as citizens, their voice should have meaning, and the electoral college refutes that. Voter ID laws, some argue, overturns to Shelby v. Holder because of its abilities to prevent certain people from voting, a majority of which who are people of color.
