The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2018-03-27 Thoroughly revised updated and expanded The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Second Edition explores current topics such as mass social media cookies and cyber attacks as well as traditional issues including accounting discrimination environmental concerns and management The new edition also includes an in depth examination of current and recent ethical affairs such as the dangerous work environments of off shore factories for Western retailers the negligence resulting in the 2010 BP oil spill the gender wage gap the minimum wage debate and increasing income disparity and the unparalleled level of debt in the U S and other countries with the challenges it presents to many societies and the considerable impact on the ethics of intergenerational wealth transfers Key Features Include Seven volumes available in both electronic and print formats contain more than 1 200 signed entries by significant figures in the field Cross references and suggestions for further readings to guide students to in depth resources Thematic Reader s Guide groups related entries by general topics Index allows for thorough browse and search capabilities in the electronic edition Perspectives on Philosophy of Management and Business Ethics Jacob Dahl Rendtorff, 2017-01-05 This book presents a selection of articles with focus on the theoretical foundations of business ethics and in particular on the philosophy of management and on human rights and business This implies identifying and discussing conflicts as well as agreement with regard to the philosophical and other foundations of business and management Despite the general interest in corporate social responsibility and business ethics the contemporary discussion rarely touches upon the normative core and philosophical foundations of business There is a need to discuss the theoretical basis of business ethics and of business and human rights Even though the actions and activities of business may be discussed from a moral perspective not least in the media the judgments and opinions relating to business and management often lack deeper moral reflection and consistency Partly for this reason business ethicists are constantly challenged to provide such moral and philosophical foundations for business ethics and for business and human rights and to communicate them in an understandable manner Such a challenge is also of scientific kind Positions and opinions in the academic field need to be substantiated by thorough moral and theoretical reflection to underpin normative approaches Far too often business ethicists may agree on matters which they approach from different and sometimes irreconcilable philosophical standpoints resulting in superficial agreement but deeper lying disagreement In other cases it may be of high relevance to identify philosophical standpoints that despite conflicting fundamentals may arrive at conclusions acceptable to everyone Citation Classics from the Journal of Business Ethics Alex C. Michalos, Deborah C Poff, 2012-08-01 The Journal of Business Ethics was founded by Alex C Michalos and Deborah C Poff and published its first issue in March 1982 It is the most frequently cited business ethics journal in the world The Journal has always offered a multi disciplinary and international public forum for the discussion of issues concerning the interaction of successful business and moral virtue Its authors and readers are primarily scholars and students in social sciences and philosophy with special interests in the interaction of these disciplines with business or corporate responsibility Since the field of business ethics grew simultaneously with the growth of the Journal a collection of its most cited articles is tantamount to a collection of the articles that had the greatest influence in defining the field over its first 30 years of development In this anniversary volume an overview of citation classics from the Journal is presented the 33 most frequently cited articles are reproduced and brief reflections on the impact of the Journal on the field are given from over 100 scholars who authored citation classics and or distinguished papers as well as those who served on the Editorial Board and or are recognized as leaders in the field

Leadership and Business Ethics Gabriel Flynn, 2022-01-24 This book offers new and challenging approaches to business ethics that successfully link theory and practice thereby overcoming lacunae and inadequacies in much of the literature concerning ethics and governance a theme that recurs with remarkable frequency in the history of business ethics as an academic discipline This work provides imaginative and innovative proposals for the indispensable coupling of virtue integrity and character with global business finance and banking The volume seeks to overcome the marginal status of business ethics in universities business and enterprise by demonstrating that virtue ethics is an important step in the direction of an adequate response to the leadership issue This new edition of a popular work points to new ways of achieving an ever more urgent coalescence of ethics and business It proposes practical advice and viable suggestions to business people on what is right and wrong in business The volume makes a vital contribution in the area of education that should serve the ongoing development of top leaders In the important domain of women in leadership the volume provides new solutions that break boundaries on the global stage The work challenges unethical marketing of human images with important implications for citizenship and society The volume contains creative suggestions for the use of spirituality and human development for the enhancement of business and society The significantly extended second edition includes an exciting line up of leading academics and practitioners in the audacious hope that something may change for the better in the realms of business and banking The Journal of Business Education, 1929

Moral Leadership in Action Heidi von Weltzien Hoivik, 2003-01-01 This comprehensive volume is particularly suited to teachers and students within the higher education sector having an interest in business and management ethics Economic Outlook and Business Review The theme of this book is moral leadership in action as it manifests itself implicitly and explicitly in European business organizations We understand leadership as interplay among people at all levels within organizations and also within the economic system by which people are bound together through particular forms of interaction The contributions collected in this volume mirror the plurality of approaches we find in the theoretical writings of academics in different European countries The additional business cases from six different nations show how leaders actually have adopted and integrated working with values in their own organizations i.e. how they put moral leadership into action While the selected papers are not meant to be representative of each country particular economic and cultural traditions are apparent in both thinking and managing moral leadership The contributors by presenting this emerging multicultural pattern of Europe contribute to a better and more knowledgeable understanding of how European business leaders pursue their goals Managers students and teachers in business ethics and leadership studies will find this volume an indispensable guide to the unique contributions of European leadership scholars

Storytelling for Sustainability in Higher Education Petra Molthan-Hill, Heather Luna, Tony Wall, Helen Puntha, Denise Baden, 2020-03-25 To be a storyteller is an incredible position from which to influence hearts and minds and each one of us has the capacity to utilise storytelling for a sustainable future This book offers unique and powerful insights into how stories and storytelling can be utilised within higher education to support sustainability literacy. Stories can shape our perspective of the world around us and how we interact with it and this is where storytelling becomes a useful tool for facilitating understanding of sustainability concepts which tend to be complex and multifaceted. The craft of storytelling is as old as time and has influenced human experience throughout the ages. The conscious use of storytelling in higher education is likewise not new although less prevalent in certain academic disciplines. What this book offers is the opportunity to delve into the concept of storytelling as an educational tool regardless of and beyond the boundaries of subject area. Written by academics and storytellers, the book is based on the authors' own experiences of using stories within teaching, from a story of the Ecology of Law to the exploration of sustainability in accounting and finance via contemporary cinema. Practical advice in each chapter ensures that ideas may be put into practice with ease. In addition to examples from the classroom, the book also explores wider uses of storytelling for communication and sense making and ways of assessing student storytelling work. It also offers fascinating research insights, for example, in addressing the question of whether positive utopian stories relating to climate change will have a stronger impact on changing the behaviour of readers than will dystopian stories. Everyone working as an educator should find some inspiration here for their own practice on using storytelling and stories to co-design positive futures together with our students.
