

MEMORANDUM

DATE: 26 October 2011
TO: Whom It May Concern
FROM: KBR Client Owned Equipment Administrator LCV
SUBJECT: Letter of reference, Gangadhar Sambaru

1. This a letter reference to account for Gangadhar's employment while on the LOGCAP project in Balad, Iraq. He joined the property department in June 2010 serving as one of our inventory specialists. He came to us in a time of significant need for employees in the department. He filled in with enthusiasm and eagerness to learn. He background did not require computer related skills, inventory or property control. He adapted quickly to the newer technology environment and learned the skills needed to get things done.
2. Given the drawdown of this project, of this Property department has become increasingly demanding. Gangadhar's first job duties were to inventory equipment and prepare spreadsheets in a computer tracking system. He learned our system very quickly and began duties that many experienced employees have done. He was given the job of locating and identifying government property; a function that requires extreme attention to detail. His most important qualities are: his outstanding attitude, eagerness to learn new things and ability to do many things at one time. He had demonstrated teamwork and friendly service to all of our employees, U.S military service members.
3. I have been the leader of several hundred U.S marines and employees in my career history. I volunteered to write this letter of reference because Gangadhar has shown us a high level of dedication and commitment to our team in Iraq. We will miss him a lot and wish him well in his future.

Thank you,

Jonathan Bradley
