Handbook on Hybrid Organisations David Billis, Colin Rochester, 2020-02-28 Hybrid Organisations that integrate competing organisational principles have become a preferred means of tackling the complexity of today's societal problems. One familiar set of examples are organisations that combine significant features from market public and third sector organisations. Many different groundbreaking approaches to hybridity are contained in this Handbook which brings together a collection of empirical studies from an international body of scholars. The chapters analyse and theorise the position of hybrid organisations and have important implications for theory practice and policy in a context of proliferating hybrid forms of organisation.

The G3 Battle Rifle Leroy Thompson, 2019-05-30 During the Cold War the G3 was one of the world's pre-eminent battle rifles. Developed in France and Spain after 1945 the rifle was produced by the German arms manufacturer Heckler Koch. Adopted by more than 40 countries and produced on licence by many more it was widely employed during colonial wars in Africa insurgencies in Latin America and conflicts in the Middle East but perhaps its widest use was in the Iran Iraq War. Variants of the G3 have also seen substantial usage among Special Forces including Britain's Special Boat Service and the US Navy SEALs. Semi-automatic versions especially the HK91 and HK93 remain popular in the United States and the G3 derived HK11 and HK21 family of light machine guns have also been widely adopted by military and law enforcement units across the world. Fully illustrated with specially commissioned artwork this study examines one of the iconic weapons of the Cold War era.
