

Chris stood there staring at Holly more surprised that he was actually giving it some serious thought than at what she'd just proposed. He's had a crush on her since the 9th grade and while the two are the best of friends, so much so that everyone thinks they're a couple, they are still only close friends. Chris has been her date for two proms and the two spend a lot of time together. Chris has always thought he'd just wear her down and in the meantime everyone would think he was dating the prettiest girl in their school. Holly had confessed to him long ago that she just didn't like boys like that. She said, you're the only boy I get along with well enough to spend time around. I know you really like me and I wish sometimes I felt the same but I can't imagine us being sexual with each other. Now they were done with school and Holly was leaving to move to the city. She had a job lined up at a call center where a friend of her mother was the manager. Chris had asked about coming with her and she said, if you'll try something for me I'll think about it? While she worked on him she finally confessed that she was really attracted to girls. She also confessed that she lied about not being able to imagine the two of them together. She said as she finished up that she has many times, but this is how you looked. So what do you say? Want to come to the city with me and be my girlfriend? As Chris saw the look in her eyes as she looked at him he knew he had to give this a try. He's wanted her to look at him like that since 9th grade. He finally said , you'll have to help me Holly, I don't know a thing about how to be a girl, your girl. Holly said, don't worry I'll teach you.
