Gauteng Government Nursing Training Programme 2016:

Emancipatory Feminism in the Time of Covid-19 Hawzhin Azeez, Asanda Benya, Christine Bischoff, Jane Cherry, Jacklyn Cock, Jane Mbithi-Dikgol, Samantha Hargreaves, Courtney Morgan, Inge Konik, Sonia Phalatse, Busi Sibeko, Dineo Skosana, 2023-07 The Covid pandemic threw into stark relief the multi dimensional threats created by neoliberal capitalism Government measures to alleviate the crisis were largely inadequate leaving women in particular working class women to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers to carry the increased burden of care work while at the same time placing themselves in direct risk as frontline workers Emancipatory Feminism in the time of Covid 19 The seventh volume in the Democratic Marxism series explores how many subaltern women working class peasant and indigenous Challenge hegemonic neoliberal feminism through their resistance to ordinary capitalist practices and ecological extractivism Contributors cover womens responses in a wide range of contexts from women leading the defence of Rojava the Kurdish region of Syria to approaches to anti capitalist ecology and building food secure pathways in communities across Africa to championing climate justice in mining affected communities and transforming gender divisions in mining labour practices in South Africa To contesting macro economic policies affecting the working conditions of nurses Their practices demonstrate a feminist understanding of the current systemic crises of capitalism and patriarchal oppression What is offered in this collection is a subaltern women s grassroots resistance focused on advancing and enabling solidarity based political projects deepening democracy building capacities and alliances to advance new feminist alternatives Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals: Advocacy and Action Donna M. Nickitas, Donna J. Middaugh, Veronica Feeg, 2018-08-22 Policy and Politics for Nurses and Other Health Professionals Third Edition focuses on the idea that all healthcare providers require a fundamental understanding of the healthcare system including but not limited to knowledge required to practice their discipline Theoretical Basis for Nursing Melanie McEwen, Evelyn M. Wills, 2017-12-28 Access the essential information you need to understand and apply theory in practice research education and administration management The most concise and contemporary nursing theory resource available Theoretical Basis for Nursing 5th Edition clarifies the application of theory and helps you become a more confident well rounded nurse This acclaimed text is extensively researched and easy to read giving you an engaging approachable guide to developing analyzing and evaluating theory in your nursing career African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender

class and ethnic identity For example neo natal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment
