Gerhard Schoeman

Gauteng Life Sciences September 2014 Exam:

Making a Life Hannah J Dawson, 2025-05 Making a Life explores the dynamic everyday life making strategies of young men in Zandspruit a sprawling informal settlement on the outskirts of Johannesburg In many ways Zandspruit typifies the precariousness of life within South Africa where two thirds of young people lack waged employment However rather than seeing Zandspruit as dumping ground Hannah Dawson calls for an integrated understanding of the complex linkages between people s lives and livelihoods and the multifaceted socio political landscape of urban settlements Based on 14 months of ethnographic research Dawson investigates how social belonging identity and economic realities intertwine in places such as Zandspruit This approach not only challenges conventional approaches to studying work it also questions the increasingly prevalent perspective that romanticises the adaptive survival strategies of the urban poor By exploring the intricate connections between those with and without wages the author shows how young men manage complex social political and economic conditions Making a Life offers insights into issues such as urban work citizenship under employment and inequality in South Africa At the same time it contributes to a global understanding of how young people men especially manage economic uncertainty Handbook of Disability Marcia H. Rioux, Alexis Buettgen, Ezra Zubrow, José Viera, 2024-04-03 This important reference work maps the terrain of disability across the world by providing an overview of issues concerns and developments in the domains of society culture medicine law policy justice education economics and science and technology It is a truly inclusive volume bringing together perspectives from researchers activists professionals service providers international development experts and policymakers based in the global North and South and it particularly focuses on the voices of the principal stakeholders disabled persons themselves Working from an interdisciplinary matrix this book reviews historical developments contemporary practices and policies It addresses hitherto uncharted areas in the disability discourse that will be significant in the years to come In the modern world the social and medical responses to disability have been separation segregation and incarceration of disabled people These responses are reflected in practices of special education building of asylums medical classifications and sheltered employment Current thinking on disability is based on the need to overcome such segregation through the enactment of human rights and socially just programmes policies and laws such as inclusive education affirmative action reasonable accommodation and supported decision making This book explores The evolution of the concept of disability over space and time and identifies approaches to disability debility equality and equity Broad trends in research on disability across the world New directions in work on disability The emergence of a global disability movement and its etiology Intersections of disability with other demographic variables like gender race caste and age and Historical and socio economic interfaces with colonialism globalization and social development Spread over 14 sections and spanning more than 80 chapters this volume is the most comprehensive up to date reference work available on the subject The Infrastructures of Security Martin Murray, 2022-08-15 The shift from dependence upon human decision making in security services to Artificial Intelligence One Virus, Two Countries Steven Friedman, 2021-11-01 Has South Africa done well at limiting illness and deaths during the COVID 19 pandemic Academic and political commentator Steven Friedman thinks not While the country's mainstream media believes it has in his view the evidence tells another story South Africa has experienced by far the most cases and deaths in Africa at one point as many as the rest of the continent combined One Virus Two Countries What Covid 19 tells us about South Africa offers a searing analysis of government and expert scientists responses to the pandemic Friedman argues that South Africa is two societies in one a First World which resembles Western Europe and North America and a Third World which looks much like the rest of Africa or South Asia The South African state the media and the scientific community have largely tried to deal with the virus through a First World lens in which much of the country was either invisible or a problem not a partner Friedman argues this approach prevented the country from responding in a way which would have protected most citizens This is why case numbers and deaths are so high South Africa has done worse than the rest of Africa not despite the fact that it has a more developed health system but because it does One Virus Two Countries is a controversial book that will rouse much needed debate about South Africa's health and economic system in a context of serious inequality A Surgeon and a Maverick Simon Pearson, Fiona Gorman, 2023-10-03 A remarkable journey The Telegraph The incredible life story of legendary cardiac surgeon and scientist Magdi Yacoub an outsider who succeeded against the odds Veteran journalists Simon Pearson and Fiona Gorman follow the remarkable life of heart surgeon Magdi Yacoub from his formative years in Egypt through spectacular success at Cairo University to his long and distinguished career in Britain Although at times he clashed with the medical establishment in London Yacoub pioneered great advances in heart surgery He was knighted in 1992 and in 2014 he was awarded the highest honor in the gift of the Queen the Order of Merit Written with unprecedented access and drawing on extensive interviews and research the biography recounts how Yacoub transformed the treatment of children with congenital heart disease He performed some of the first heart transplants in Britain and the first heart lung transplants in Europe At London's Harefield Hospital he created the greatest heart transplant center in the world Among his patients are men and women who are still thriving more than thirty five years after he gave them new hope This story is also about science the development of new medical techniques and a deeper understanding of how the human body works Today at an age when most people have long since retired Yacoub is still pushing the boundaries of scientific understanding and surgical know how He is also taking heart surgery to places that until now have had little access to cardiac treatment developing centers of excellence across Africa including in Egypt where his hospital in Aswan has an international reputation and a new center is rising in Cairo Yacoub's life is one of triumph and tragedy success and failure fierce criticism and high praise it is also an enthralling journey through the worlds of scientific research and medical politics and ethics at the highest levels
