Home and Community for Queer Men of Color C. Winter Han, Jesús Gregorio Smith, 2019-12-13 This edited volume examines how and where gay men of color find home and what kind of home they find how they make sense of race and sexuality and how their experiences reflect what it means to be raced and sexed in America The contributors argue both racially and sexually marginalized groups all confront levels of racism and heterosexism that is practiced by the larger ethnic and sexual communities that use white heterosexuality as the norm to which all others are compared They further argue that despite different constructions of race and ethnicity there are similar themes for racialized groups that need to be explored

Asian Masculinities Kam Louie, Morris Low, 2005-07-25 This book shows how East Asian masculinities are being formed and transformed as Asia is increasingly globalized The gender roles performed by Chinese and Japanese men are examined not just as they are lived in Asia but also in the West The essays collected here enhance current understandings of East Asian identities and cultures as well as Western conceptions of gender and sexuality While basic issues such as masculine ideals in China and Japan are examined the book also addresses issues including homosexuality women's perceptions of men the role of sport and food and Asian men in the Chinese diaspora

Consumerism on TV Alison Hulme, 2016-03-09 Presenting case studies of well known shows including Will and Grace Birds of a Feather Sex and the City and Absolutely Fabulous as well as reality television this book examines the transformations that have occurred in consumer society since its appearance and the ways in which these have been constructed and represented in popular media imagery With analyses of the ways in which consumerism has played out in society Consumerism on TV highlights specific aspects of the changing nature of consumerism by way of considerations of gender sexuality and class as well as less definable changes such as those to do with the celebration of ostentatious greed or the righteousness of the ethical shopper With attention to the highly delineated consumer field in which shopping as an embedded practice of everyday life is caught between escapism and politics authors explore a variety of themes such as the extent to which consumerism has become embedded in forging identity the positing of consumerism as a form of activism the visibility of the gay male consumer and invisibility of the lesbian consumer and the re stratification of consumer types along class lines An engaging invitation to consider whether the positioning of consumerism through on screen depictions is indicative of a new type of non philosophical politics of choice a form of marketised a political pragmatism this book will appeal to scholars and students of sociology and cultural and media studies with interests in class consumption and gender
