1. Suggest a simple question or hypothesis for the students to explore in their investigation.

Has the impact of natural disasters in... increasing the number of people...

The first part of this response is good although there is a bit of a mix of words to show that, which could be improved by using the same words and giving a clearer link for the point. The second part of this response is good as it shows the link and the comparison with another 1 mark.

Do not leave things unsimplified. Having more than one point is important in this type of question.
