

Government: The Final Study Guide

Understand how our most constitutionally important values can be used to solve constitutional problems that arise. After considering each example, consider the principle underlying the constitutional provision and then consider constitutional issues that arise. In this list provided, perhaps it is not clear what constitutional principle that I might argue that cannot really be applied to this issue. In this case, please make the point for issue. I mean it is not their ability to find answers that I care to suggest but rather the ability to understand the principle that you are supposed to use in answering the issue. Remember it is the principle that the answer.
