Childhood Musings Samantha Steyart, 2015-05-10 Childhood Musings is a compilation of all of the stories poems and screenplays that I have written in my lifetime It is a project that made me realize that I have stayed pretty creative throughout my life Take Me to School Serena Casey, 2021-04-18 Serena Casey takes us on a journey through her life and career as an educator It is both a personal tale of growth and an insightful look at what constitutes good teaching Her own teachers her colleagues her bosses and mostly her students star in this touching story of what a life of teaching has meant to one woman Anyone who is a teacher or who has ever been a student will be glad to have taken this journey with her

Beyond Broadway Stacy Ellen Wolf, 2020 The idea of American musical theatre conjures up images of bright lights and big city but its lifeblood is found in local and amateur productions at schools community theatres summer camps and more In Beyond Broadway author Stacy Wolf considers the widespread presence and persistence of musical theatre in U S culture and examines it as a live pleasurable participatory experience of creating watching and listening Why does local musical theatre flourish in America Why do so many Americans passionately engage in a century old artistic practice that requires intense person to person collaboration Why do audiences flock to see musicals in their hometowns How do corporations like Disney and Music Theatre International enable musical theatre s energetic movement through American culture Touring from Maine to California Wolf visits elementary schools a middle school performance festival afterschool programs high schools summer camps state park outdoor theatres community theatres and dinner theatres and conducts over 200 interviews with practitioners and spectators licensors and Disney creatives In Beyond Broadway Wolf tells the story of musical theatre s abundance and longevity in the U S as a thriving joyful activity that touches millions of lives Feltness

Stephanie Springgay, 2022-09-23 Stephanie Springgay s concept of feltness which emerges from affect theory queer and feminist theory and feminist conceptions of more than human entanglements is a set of intimate practices of creating art based on touch affect relationality love and responsibility In this book she explores how feltness is a radical pedagogy that can be practiced with diverse publics including children who are often left out of conversations about who can learn in radical ways Springgay examines the results of a decade long project in which researchers artists students and teachers participated in events in North American elementary secondary and postsecondary institutions In projects that ranged from children learning to be critics and artists to university students experimenting with building a public through art participants blended participatory art creation with academic research to address social justice issues Springgay shows how feltness can redefine who is imagined to be capable of complex feeling experiential learning embodied practice social engagement and intimate care In this way feltness fosters learning that disrupts and defamiliarizes schools and institutions knowledge systems values and the legibility of art and research Remarkable Women Word Search Puzzles M. with the names of renowned female scientists actors musicians politicians authors athletes and other notable personalities Included are outstanding women from a wide spectrum of eras ranging from Jane Austen and Marie Curie to Meryl Streep and Beyonc Discover which fashion designer is a former figure skater who was the first woman to reach the summit of Mount Everest who gave a speech at the United Nations on her sixteenth birthday and hundreds of other interesting tidbits about the life and times of these amazing individuals All names are presented alphabetically and complete solutions are provided in the back of the book Please Lord, Spare Me the Full Moon Deborah Hendricks Pierce, 2009-08-13 When I began teaching in the early seventies I knew I was in it for the long haul I knew this was my career my calling the fulfillment of a childhood dream From as far back as my memory will take me I had a longing to be a teacher It never entered my mind to spend my life in any other way than in front of a classroom This was cemented with I entered the first grade and loved my teacher so much I wanted to be just like her Im sure I lost no time telling this teacher what I wanted to be when I grew up So she gave me little opportunities to practice teaching When someone couldnt tie his shoes she would ask me to teach him how If a student was struggling shed place me beside him to help I was so proud Any opportunity to teach was just taking me one inch nearer my destination As I progressed through my school years being assigned to help one of the slower students was an honor for me I was fortunate that those were the years teachers were absolutely dedicated to their calling and to their students Those were the days when teaching was one of the few professions women could enter And to get there usually meant someone was sacrificing for them to attend school Completing their education was a culmination of hard work and determination Teachers were respected and highly regarded by the public All that combined produced good teachers who were extremely proud to stand before children and be the planters of knowledge As a child to be like any one of them was my burning desire Never losing sight of my goal I progressed through the grades I may not have been the most academic kid on the block but I was responsible Teachers entrusted me with duties jobs and tutoring In twelfth grade I was put in charge of a study hall Upon graduation I was one step closer to being a teacher I finished college early and finally was a teacher From the beginning of my days in the classroom I wrote down funny things kids would say and do because I just didnt want to forget them As I moved from pre school to kindergarten then middle or high school I had quite a treasure trove After retiring I reflected upon my time in the classroom and decided maybe my friends were right in telling me I should write a book I knew it would be fun to share my stories and experiences From time to time I would get out my old brown tattered notebook and write And as I got older and older I decided if I am going to ever write a book I need to get moving I knew Id rather write it myself than to die and have someone run across my notebook and try to write my story Thus a book was born I delight in telling my story Some pages will make you cry Others will make you laugh I dont begin to pretend I was the perfect teacher This book does not allude to that It paints a portrait of the inner workings of a classroom in todays world It conveys the fact that when teaching children with special needs subject matter sometimes takes a back seat They came to us with such baggage When I stop and think about the troubles those children carried on their shoulders I marvel at how they managed to rise in the mornings and get to school As teachers we had to look beyond the language and behavior in order to help these people Our role as teachers extended way beyond our training These were not the children of yesteryear Most of them were products of drug ridden homes and streets absentee parents video games violence on television and movies and absolute poverty These influences rode on the bus with them and traveled right into the classroom where we were expected to teach counsel and police That may not have been the teaching of my childhood dreams but somehow I saw the need to know what my priorities had to be each and every day Given all the things I saw heard and dealt with I dont believe I could ever have returned to a regular classroom It woul Create Fun @ Work Berge Boyadjian,1999-11 52 Things Sons Need from Their Moms Angela Thomas,2015-04-01 He s 100 percent boy and I just don t understand him Angela Thomas bestselling author of 52 Things
