Kafka Pour Une Littérature Mineure:

Kafka, 1975 Kafka Gilles Deleuze, 1979 Kafka Gilles Deleuze, 1984 Littératures mineures en langue majeure Jean Pierre Bertrand, Lise Gauvin, Laurent Demoulin, 2003 Kafka Gilles Deleuze, 1986 In Kafka Deleuze and Guattari free their subject from his misinterpreters In contrast to traditional readings that see in Kafka's work a case of Oedipalized neurosis or a flight into transcendence guilt and subjectivity Deleuze and Guattari make a case for Kafka as a man of joy a promoter of radical politics who resisted at every turn submission to frozen hierarchies Who's Afraid of Deleuze and Guattari? Gregg Lambert, 2006-11-03 Deleuze and Guattari's landmark philosophical project Capitalism and Schizophrenia has been hailed as a highly original and sensational major philosophical work The collaboration of two of the most remarkable and influential minds of the twentieth century it is a project that still sets the terms of contemporary philosophical debate It provides a radical and compelling analysis of social and cultural phenomena offering fresh alternatives for thinking about history society capitalism and culture In Who's Afraid of Deleuze and Guattari Gregg Lambert revisits this seminal work and re-evaluates Deleuze and Guattari's legacy in philosophy literary criticism and cultural studies since the early 1980s Lambert offers the first detailed analysis of the reception of the Capitalism and Schizophrenia project by such key figures as Jameson Žižek Badiou Hardt Negri and Agamben He argues that the project has suffered from being underappreciated and too hastily dismissed on the one hand and on the other too quickly assimilated to the objectives of other desires such as multiculturalism or American identity politics In the light of the limitations of this reception history Lambert offers a fresh evaluation of the project and its influences that promise to challenge the ways in which Deleuze and Guattari's controversial and remarkable project has been received Divided into four key sections Aesthetics Psychoanalysis Politics and Power Who's Afraid of Deleuze and Guattari offers a fresh witty and intelligent analysis of this major philosophical project Gilles Deleuze and the Fabulation of Philosophy Gregory Flaxman, A surprising and wide ranging reconsideration of Deleuze Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari François Dosse, 2011 In May 1968 Gilles Deleuze was an established philosopher teaching at the innovative Vincennes University just outside of Paris Félix Guattari was a political militant and director of an unusual psychiatric clinic at La Borde Their meeting was unlikely and the two were introduced in an arranged encounter of epic consequence From that moment on Deleuze and Guattari engaged in a surprising productive partnership collaborating on several groundbreaking works including Anti-Oedipus What Is Philosophy? and A Thousand Plateaus François Dosse a prominent French intellectual examines the prolific if improbable relationship between two men of distinct and differing sensibilities Drawing on unpublished archives and hundreds of personal interviews Dosse elucidates a collaboration that lasted more than two decades underscoring the role that family and history particularly the turbulence of May 1968 played in their monumental work He also takes the measure of Deleuze and Guattari's posthumous fortunes and weighs the impact of their thought within intellectual academic and professional circles Mapping Minor/Small and

World Literatures Nicholas Birns, Yanli He, 2024-06-05 Mapping Minor Small and World Literatures Periphery and Center makes a declarative intervention in debates about world literature redefining the boundaries between the center and periphery to rejuvenate long established assumptions about significance and insignificance In this book African American literature emerging from the often overlooked pink periphery a cramped space of minor literature works from the Faroe Islands Basque literature First Nation Canadian literature Western narratives about peripheral China Kurdish literature the ultraminor literary space of Antigua the favela of Brazilian literature as well as the hyperlocal narratives of Australian and New Zealand literature are all studied for their meaningful role within the world literary system Additionally working class writing and the literary contributions of individuals on the margins of their own societies are given a voice ensuring that the world literary space does not merely represent the perspectives of dominant elites Unlike other descriptions of world literature which have frequently allowed the grandeur and breadth of the global to overshadow the imperative for authentic literary biodiversity this anthology featuring contributions from diverse scholars representing various countries and backgrounds actively deconstructs the structures of power and domination inherent in Western European centered world literature minor literature and small literature

International Perspectives on Multilingual Literatures Katie Jones, Julian Preece, Aled Rees, 2020-10-28 This carefully curated collection of essays charts interactions between majority languages including English French German Italian and Japanese and minority dialects or languages pushed to the margins including Arabic Bengali Esperanto Neapolitan and Welsh through a series of case studies of leading modern and contemporary cultural producers The contributors who work and study across the globe extend critical understanding of literary multilingualism to the subjects of migration and the exophonic self translation and the aesthetics of interlinguistic bricolage language death and language perseveration and power in linguistic hierarchies in post colonial contexts Their subjects include the authors Julia Alvarez Elena Ferrante Jonathan Franzen Am lie Nothomb Ali Smith Yoko Tawada and Dylan Thomas the film maker Ulrike Ottinger and the anonymous performers of Griko The volume will be of interest to students of creative writing literature translation and sociolinguistics
