Baudrillard and Lacanian Psychoanalysis Victoria Grace,2022-07-08 This book is the first to develop a Baudrillardian critique of the problematic way Lacanian psychoanalysis as a clinical practice and by extension as a source of socio cultural and philosophical theory continues its vain attempt to re animate a subject of the unconscious The text throws into question Lacan s notion of the real the unconscious structured as a language and his construct of surplus while interrogating the links between psychoanalysis and Marxism It shows how Lacanian psychoanalysis with its questionable ethics transpires as an endlessly recursive simulation model Lacan s clinical seminar was influential in the intellectual milieu of Paris while Baudrillard was writing Although frequently referring to psychoanalysis Baudrillard never wrote a detailed critique of psychoanalysis the scaffolding of such a work however transpires throughout the extent of his writing The text also outlines Deleuze and Guattari s critique of psychoanalysis stressing how the alternative they propose remains within the oppressive terms of our current world This book is an essential resource for social critical cultural literary feminist and psychoanalytic theory While of interest to students researchers and scholars of Jean Baudrillard s work and Lacanian psychoanalysis this book particularly addresses those for whom not all is well with psychoanalysis opening towards renewed directions through questioning Class, Trauma, Identity Giorgos Bithymitris,2023-04-14 This book is a dialectic and multi perspective examination of classed traumas in late modernity The primary anchoring question is whether and how class becomes a condition of possibility for coping with traumas What does it mean to experience deindustrialization crises or domestic violence from a specific class position Do the coping mechanisms differ along the lines of class gender race age or ethnicity The text negotiates such questions travelling back and forth from psychoanalysis to sociology and from the global to the local while critically engaging with memories narratives and myths engraved into social and personal histories Through a dialogic quest for what is silenced and what is salient within oral written and visual testimonies it foregrounds what the upper classes prefer to neglect the traumatizing core of the new class divide Rather than idealizing or vilifying the dominated this study calls for an exploration of practices narrations and spaces whereby alienation and integration co exist antagonistically producing hybrid and fragmented but also potentially transformative subjectivities This book will be of interest to scholars of humanities and social sciences primarily for those studying social stratification and inequalities sociology of emotions identity theory trauma and memory political psychoanalysis labour history and ethnography Critical Theory Between Klein
