contact was established between Babylonians Elamites and the population of Turkestan But however early the contacts assumed or established we can state truthfully that the Chinese made jade particularly and everlastingly their own embodying in it their traditions their religion their administrative system They may have derived their belief in the life giving properties of jade from the Elamites or have come to attach a magical value to its presence from the Babylonian miners but for neither of these peoples was it the vehicle of supernatural beliefs and penetrate as far back as we may into pre history we cannot find a time in China in which jade was not used for religious purposes What perhaps emphasises the peculiar position of jade in Chinese culture is the fact that other early peoples used jade although for them it had no significance greater or even as great as gold or pearls Jade was dug and worked in many parts of Europe Hatchets have been found in Switzerland nephrite celts in South Italy and France Germany Dalmatia and Hungary Jade celts too were discovered by Schliemann at Hissarlik but by no people save the Chinese has jade been made the nucleus and the shrine of a civilisation although its use was distributed in Turkestan Persia Siberia India Lake Baikal and Japan and to a minor degree the substance was prized by most Asiatic peoples It is only during the last two decades that collectors have begun to realise the enormous importance of jade Dr Laufer broke new ground when in 1912 he published his great work xde A Study in Chinese Archzology and Religion His object in writing this book was rather ethnological than artistic He himself calls it a contribution to the l Anthropology Encyclopzdia Britannica Lady Windermere's Fan (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) Oscar Wilde,1995 Lady

Oscar Wilde, 2019-09-06 Lady Windermere's Fan A Play About a Good Woman is a four act comedy by Oscar Wilde first performed on Saturday 20 February 1892 at the St James's Theatre in London The story concerns Lady Windermere who suspects that her husband is having an affair with another woman She confronts him with it but although he denies it he invites the other woman Mrs Erlynne to his wife's birthday ball Angered by her husband's supposed unfaithfulness Lady Windermere decides to leave her husband for another lover After discovering what has transpired Mrs Erlynne follows Lady Windermere and attempts to persuade her to return to her husband and in the course of this Mrs Erlynne is discovered in a compromising position It is then revealed Mrs Erlynne is Lady Windermere's mother who abandoned her family twenty years before the time the play is set Mrs Erlynne sacrifices herself and her reputation to save her daughter's marriage Act I The play opens in the morning room of the Windermeres residence in London It is tea time and Lady Windermere who is preparing for her coming of age birthday ball that evening has a visit from a friend Lord Darlington She shows off her new fan a present from her husband She explains to Lord Darlington that she is upset over the compliments he continues to pay to her revealing that she is a Puritan and has very particular views about what is acceptable in society The Duchess of Berwick calls and Lord Darlington leaves shortly thereafter The Duchess informs Lady Windermere that her husband may be betraying her marriage by making repeated visits to another woman a Mrs Erlynne and possibly giving her large sums of money These rumours have been gossip among London society for quite a while though seemingly this is the first Lady Windermere has heard about it Following the departure of the Duchess Lady Windermere decides to check her husband's bank book She finds the book in a desk and sees that nothing appears amiss though on returning she discovers a second bank book one with a lock After prying the lock open she finds it lists large sums of money given to Mrs Erlynne At this point Lord

Windermere enters and she confronts him Though he cannot deny that he has had dealings with Mrs Erlynne he states that he is not betraying Lady Windermere He requests that she send Mrs Erlynne an invitation to her birthday ball that evening to help her back into society When Lady Windermere refuses he writes out an invitation himself Lady Windermere makes clear her intention to cause a scene if Mrs Erlynne appears to which Lord Windermere responds that it would be in her best interest not to do so Lady Windermere leaves in disgust to prepare for the party and Lord Windermere reveals in soliloquy that he is protecting Mrs Erlynne s true identity to save his wife extreme humiliation What shall I do I dare not tell her who this woman really is The shame would kill her Lord Windermere

Lady Windermere's Fan Oscar Wilde,1965 Lady Windermere's Fan Oscar Wilde,2017-07-30 How is this book unique Font adjustments or The Nihilists and The Duchess of Padua had found little success and Salome had been censored Unperturbed he decided to write another play but turned from tragedy to comedy He went to the Lake District in the north of England where he stayed with a friend and later met Robert Ross Numerous characters in the play appear to draw their names from the north of England Lady Windermere from the lake and nearby town Windermere though Wilde had used Windermere earlier in Lord Arthur Saville s Crime the Duchess of Berwick from Berwick upon Tweed Lord Darlington from Darlington Wilde began writing the play at the prodding of Sir George Alexander the actor manager of St James s Theatre The play was finished by October Alexander liked the play and offered him an advance of 1 000 for it Wilde impressed by his confidence opted to take a percentage instead from which he would earn 7 000 in the first year alone worth 686 500 today Lady Windermere's Fan - Original Edition Oscar Wilde,2020-11-15 Duchess of Berwick Ah what indeed dear That is the point He goes to see her continually and stops for hours at a time and while he is there she is not at home to any one Not that many ladies call on her dear but she has a great many disreputable men friends my own brother particularly as I told you and that is what makes it so dreadful about Windermere We looked upon him as being such a model husband but I am afraid there is no doubt about it My dear nieces you know the Saville girls don t you such nice domestic creatures plain dreadfully plain but so good well they re always at the window doing fancy work and making ugly things for the poor which I think so useful of them in these dreadful socialistic days and this terrible woman has taken a house in Curzon Street right opposite them such a respectable street too I don t know what we re coming to And they tell me that Windermere goes there four and five times a week they see him They can t help it and although they never talk scandal they well of course they remark on it to every one And the worst of it all is that I have been told that this woman has got a great deal of money out of somebody for it seems that she came to London six months ago without anything at all to speak of and now she has this charming house in Mayfair drives her ponies in the Park every afternoon and all well all since she has known poor dear Windermere
