Lagonie Du Silence:

National Performance Erin Hurley, 2011-01-01 In National Performance Erin Hurley examines the complex relationship between performance and national identity How do theatrical performances represent the nation in which they were created How is Quebecois performance used to define Quebec as a nation and to cultivate a sense of Quebec ness for audiences both within and outside the province In exploring Expo 67 the critical response to Michel Tremblay's Les Belles Soeurs Carbone 14's image theatre Marco Micone's writing practices Celine Dion's popular music and feminist performance of the 1970s and 80s Hurley reveals the ways in which certain performances come to be understood as national while others are relegated to sub national or outsider status Each chapter focuses on a particular historical moment in Quebec's modern history and a genre of performance emblematic of the moment and uses these to elaborate the nature of the national performances Winner of the Northeast Modern Language Association's Book Prize National Performance is sophisticated yet accessible seeking to enlarge the parameters of what counts as Quebecois performance while providing a thorough introduction to changing discourses of nation ness in Quebec

Italian-Canadian Narratives of Return Michela Baldo, 2019-01-04 This book examines the concept of translation as a return to origins and as restitution of lost narratives and is based on the idea of diaspora as a term that depicts the longing to return home and the imaginary reconstructions and reconstitutions of home by migrants and translators The author analyses a corpus made up of novels and a memoir by Italian Canadian writers Mary Melfi Nino Ricci and Frank Paci examining the theme of return both within the writing itself and also in the discourse surrounding the translations of these works into Italian These reconstructions are analysed through the lens of translation and more specifically through the notion of written code switching understood here as a fictional tool which symbolizes the translational movements between different points of view This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars of translation and interpreting migration studies and Italian and diasporic writing

Authenticity and Legitimacy in Minority Theatre Patrice Brasseur, Madelena Gonzalez, 2010-04-16 Contemporary theatre is one of the best ways for ethno cultural minorities to express themselves whether they be of indigenous origin or immigrants It is often used to denounce social injustice and discrimination and more generally it helps to air questions debated in the wider community It may also express itself thanks to the staging of collective memory for it constitutes a privileged space for the exploration of the trauma of the past colonial for example as well as providing a means of effecting the reconfiguration of a new identity or of articulating an uneasiness about that identity Should minority theatre increase its visibility in relation to the mainstream or on the contrary remain on the margins and assert its specificity This question is at the centre of French Canadian experience for example but also applies to other postcolonial societies in Europe and elsewhere In order to maintain its cultural authenticity should this type of theatre distinguish itself from a multiculturalism that runs the risk of political and social recuperation If it is unable to resist the model proposed by globalization and widespread cultural dissemination will it lose its legitimacy Can and should there be a form of popular art at the service of the community The term minority raises questions that will be examined by the articles collected in this volume What is the definition of a minority Does this term refer to experimental and avant garde art forms as well as to ethno cultural drama Contemporary theatre is characterized by an aesthetics of hybridity in what measure is this the case for theatre outside the mainstream The exploration of this kind of theatre necessitates an examination of the very concept of theatre per se Since the development of the electronic media as the privileged vector of culture has not the theatrical genre itself become a minority art form These are some of the pressing questions that this volume will try to address thanks to a cross cultural multidisciplinary approach that aims to reveal the rich diversity of the field under study

The Music of Arthur Honegger Geoffrey K. Spratt, 1987 Studie over het werk van de Zwitserse laat romantische componist 1892 1955

Textualizing the Immigrant Experience in Contemporary Quebec Susan Ireland, Patrice J. Proulx, 2004-04-30 Immigration to Quebec has led to the decline of the idea of the homogenous national identity within French language literary production and the creation of a new literature of multiple Quebecois identities according to editors Ireland and Proulx Concepts of diversity and hybridity run throughout the 16 essays contained here which seek to collectively explore the way immigrant writers position themselves in relation to Quebecois literature and society A few essays explore the general contours of Quebecois cinema and theater in relation to these questions but the majority are devoted to more focused examinations of particular writers of novels short stories and poems

Arthur Honegger Harry Halbreich, 1999 Arthur Honegger 1892 1955 Swiss by nationality French by education and residence was a major composer of the 20th century Although he earned popular acclaim early in his career in his later years his consistently tonal musical language was considered outmoded His most significant works include five symphonies a large body of chamber music and several large scale oratorios that combine choral and instrumental writing with declaimed narrative in a uniquely effective way

HARDCOVER Messiaen's Contemplations of Covenant and Incarnation Siglind Bruhn, 2007 The celebrated composer Olivier Messiaen 1908 1992 characterized himself as a rhythmician ornithologist and theologian All interpreters concur that his life and work are grounded in a profound faith This book examines the translation of his faith into his musical language It centers on a hermeneutic analysis of two spiritually motivated instrumental compositions Visions de l'amen for two pianos 1943 and Vingt Regards sur l'enfant Jésus for piano solo 1944 Part I introduces the main aspects of the composer's religious environment the catholic literary revival his father Pierre and his mentor Charles Tournemire as well as the components of his idiosyncratic musico symbolic vocabulary Parts II and III examine the twenty seven movements comprised in the Visions and the Regards whose thematic material structure and musical as well as spiritual function within the whole cycle are interpreted in light of the literary source and imagery that inspired Messiaen This book is part of Siglind Bruhn's Messiaen Trilogy

Ex Libris, 1923

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Laflèche Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Olivier Messiaen and the Music of Time Paul Griffiths, 2012-04-05 Olivier Messiaen was one of the outstanding creative artists of his time The strength of his appeal to listeners as well as to composers is a measure of the individuality of his music which draws on a vast range of sources rhythms of twentieth century Europe and thirteenth century India ripe romantic harmony and brittle birdsong the sounds of Indonesian percussion and modern electronic instruments What binds all these together is on one level his unswerving devotion to praising God in his art and on another his independent view of how music is made Messiaen's music offers a range of ways of experiencing time time suspended in music of unparalleled changelessness time racing in music of wild exuberance time repeating itself in vast cycles of reiteration In Olivier Messiaen and the Music of Time leading writer and musicologist Paul Griffiths explores the problems of religious art and includes searching analyses and discussions of all the major works suggesting how they function as works of art and not only as theological symbols This comprehensive and stimulating book covers the whole of Messiaen's output up to and including his opera Saint François d'Assise

The Messiaen Companion Russell Hoban, 2011-11-17 Reissued to coincide with the centenary of Messiaen's birth The Messiaen Companion was the first major study to appear after the composer's death in April 1992 It was the first book to offer both a complete survey of Messiaen's extraordinary achievements and a comprehensive guide to his music also examining in detail the enduring inspiration which Messiaen derived from his religious faith and from his lifelong passion for ornithology and the natural world The contributors all of whom have made a special study of the composer include two biographers of Messiaen and a number of the foremost interpreters of his music Messiaen's influential teaching is recalled in essays by three of his pupils Pierre Boulez, George Benjamin and Peter Hill and the composer is also remembered in a remarkable and moving contribution from his widow and devoted musical companion the pianist Yvonne Loriod. The Language of Poetry: Crisis and Solution Michael Bishop, 2023-12-18. Le Pèlerin du 20e siècle, 1892. Le Pèlerin. Translators Have Their Say? Abdel Wahab Khalifa, 2014. To address the idea of agency in translation is to highlight the interplay of power and ideology: what gets translated or not and why a text is translated is mainly a matter of exercising power or reflecting authority. The contributions in this book serve as an attempt to understand the complex nature of agency in terms of its relation to agents of translation: the role of translatorial agents and the way they exercise their agency in deconstructing narratives of power and identity and the influence of translatorial agency on the various processes of translation and hence on the final translation product as well.
