Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop Nat Segaloff, Mallory Lewis, 2022-10-28 For almost half a century celebrated ventriloquist and entertainer Shari Lewis 1933 1998 delighted generations of children and adults with the help of her trusted sock puppet sidekick Lamb Chop For decades the beloved pair were synonymous with children's television educating and entrancing their young audience with their symbiotic personalities and their proclivity for song dance and the joy of silliness But as iconic as their television personas are relatively little inside knowledge has been revealed about Lewis herself and the life changing moments that led her to the entertainment industry and perhaps most importantly to Lamb Chop Renowned as a performer Lewis was equally accomplished in business Operating in an era when women were largely left out of the conversation she was one of the few women to run her own television production company Whether it was singing dancing conducting writing drawing or ventriloquism a skill in which she was virtually unmatched Lewis spent the entirety of her sixty five years in pursuit of performative perfection Constantly innovating and adapting to the needs of her audience and the market Lewis extended the longevity of her career decade after decade Her contributions particularly the creation of Lamb Chop and her puppet pals forever changed the history of children's television Now long after Lewis and Lamb Chop graced television with their final performance Lewis's daughter Mallory and author Nat Segaloff have set the record straight about the iconic pair in Shari Lewis and Lamb Chop The Team That Changed Children's Television In this seminal biography the authors pull the veritable wool from the eyes of audiences who adore the legendary entertainer to examine the joys sorrows triumphs and sheer hard work that gave Lewis and Lamb Chop their enduring star power

Mozza at Home Nancy Silverton, Carolyn Carreno, 2016-10-25 As an award winning chef and the owner of six busy restaurants across two continents Nancy Silverton was so consumed by her life in the professional kitchen that for years she almost never cooked at home With her intense focus on the business of cooking Nancy had forgotten what made her love to cook in the first place fabulous ingredients at the height of their season simple food served family style and friends and loved ones gathered around the dinner table Then on a restorative trip to Italy with its ripe vegetables magnificent landscapes and long summer days Nancy began to cook for friends and family again and rediscovered the great pleasures and great tastes of cooking and eating at home Now in Mozza at Home Nancy shares her renewed passion and provides nineteen menus packed with easy to follow recipes that can be prepared in advance with no fancy restaurant equipment needed and are perfect for entertaining Organized by meal each menu provides a main dish along with a complementary selection of appetizers and side dishes Under Nancy's guidance you can mix and match all the options depending on the size of your gathering Make a few sides for a small dinner party with friends or make them all for a delicious family feast And don't forget dessert there's an entire chapter dedicated to end of meal treats such as Devil's Food Rings with Spiced White Mountain Frosting and Dario's Olive Oil Cake with Rosemary and Pine Nuts that can be prepared hours before serving so that the host gets to relax during the event too Whether it's
