Marriage By Proxy English Edition:

Harvard Law Review ,1919 Muslim Marriage in Western Courts Pascale Fournier,2016-04-29 This book describes and analyses the notion of Mahr the Muslim custom whereby the groom has to give a gift to the bride in consideration of the marriage It explores how Western courts specifically in Canada the United States France and Germany have approached and interpreted Mahr Although the outcomes of the cases provide an illustrative framework for the book the focus is broader than simply the adjudicative endeavours The work explores the concept of liberalism which purportedly champions individuals and individual choice concurrently with freedom and equality Tensions between and among these concepts however inevitably arise The acknowledgment and exploration of these intertwined tensions forms an important underpinning for the book Through the analysis of case law from these four countries this study suggests that transplanting Mahr from Islamic law into a Western courtroom cannot be undone it immediately becomes rooted in the countries legal historical political and social backgrounds and flourishes or fails in diverse and unexpected ways Rather than being the concept described by classical Islamic jurists Mahr is interpreted according to wildly varied legal constructs and concepts such as multiculturalism fairness public policy and gender equality Moreover Islamic law travels with a multiplicity of voices and it is this complex hybridity a fragmented and disjointed Mahr which will be mediated through Western law Returning to the overarching concept of liberalism the book proposes that distributive consequences rather than recognition occupy central place in the evaluation of the legal options available to Muslim women upon divorce Chambers's encyclopædia Chambers W. and R., ltd,1901

Appellate Court, Stephen Davis Porter, 2000 The Athenaeum, 1884 Being Salvation Brandon R. Peterson, 2017-06-15 Karl Rahner's theory of how Jesus saves has garnered criticism Rahner's portrayal of Jesus has been described by Hans Urs von Balthasar as merely notifying the world of God's salvific will Others have doubted whether Rahner thinks Jesus causes salvation at all Even Rahner's advocates style his Jesus as a kind of sign albeit an effective one the primal Sacrament But another major and yet underappreciated dimension to Rahner's christology is his identification of Jesus as Representative both our representative before God and God's before us As such a Representative Jesus is not a redemptive agent who accomplishes human salvation simply through an act and even less is he a mere exemplar or notification This Jesus does not only do our salvation rather he is the locus of salvation itself He not only opens heaven's gates but he creates heaven with his own resurrection Being Salvation uncovers this dimension within Rahner's theology relating it to other historical examples of representative soteriology e.g. Irenaeus's theory of recapitulation and to Rahner's more familiar sacramental soteriological categories It gives special attention to Rahner's intense attention to the church fathers early in his career including Rahner's untranslated theology dissertation E latera Christi From the Side of Christ
