Upton,2006-11-30 Race riots are the most glaring and contemporary displays of the racial strife running through America s history Mostly urban mostly outside the South and mostly white instigated the number and violence of race riots increased as blacks migrated out of the rural South and into the North and West s industrialized cities during the early part of the twentieth century Though white black violence has been the most common form of racial violence riots involving Asians and Hispanics are also included and examined Race riots are the most glaring and contemporary displays of the racial strife running through America s history Mostly urban mostly outside the South and mostly white instigated the number and violence of race riots increased as blacks migrated out of the rural South and into the North and West's industrialized cities during the early part of the twentieth century. While most riots have occurred within the past century, the encyclopedia reaches back to colonial history, giving the encyclopedia an unprecedented historical depth. Though white-on-black violence has been the most common form of racial violence, riots involving other racial and ethnic groups such as Asians and Hispanics are also included and examined. Organized A-Z topics include notorious riots like the Tulsa Riots of 1921, the Los Angeles Riots of 1965, and 1992 the African American community's preparedness and responses to this odious form of mass violence; federal responses to rioting; an examination of the underlying causes of rioting; the reactions of prominent figures such as H. Rap Brown and Martin Luther King Jr. to rioting; and much more. Many of the entries describe and analyze particular riots and violent racial incidents, including the following: Belleville Illinois Riot of 1903, Harlem New York Riot of 1943, Howard Beach Incident 1986, Jackson State University Incident 1970, Los Angeles California Riot of 1992, Memphis Tennessee Riot of 1866, Red Summer Race Riots of 1919, Southwest Missouri Riots 1894-1906, Texas Southern University Riot of 1967. Entries covering the victims and opponents of race violence include the following: Black Soldiers, Lynching of Black Women, Lynching of Diallo Amadou Hawkins, Yusef King, Rodney Randolph, A. Philip Roosevelt, Eleanor Till, Emmett, Lynching of Turner, Mary, Lynching of Wells, Barnett, Ida B. Many entries also cover legislation that has addressed racial violence and inequality, as well as groups and organizations that have either fought or promoted racial violence, including the following: Anti Lynching League, Civil Rights Act of 1957, Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, Ku Klux Klan, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, NAACP, Nation of Islam, Vigilante Organizations, White League. Other entries focus on relevant concepts, trends, themes, and publications. Besides almost 300 cross-referenced entries, most of which conclude with lists of additional readings, the encyclopedia also offers a timeline of racial violence in the United States, an extensive bibliography of print and electronic resources, a selection of important primary documents, numerous illustrations, and a detailed subject index.

Beyond Homo Sapiens Mariú Suárez, 2011-05-31 Beyond Homo Sapiens Enlightened Faith is the last book of the Beyond Homo Sapiens trilogy. It concludes the series with a mystical political review of the historical events of the last 5,000 years with the struggle of progressive thinkers and activists to help people recognize their universality and achieve enlightenment during the last 140 years. The ongoing fight for human rights and social justice is a battle against the interests of the privileged few who work to stay in power by keeping the masses anchored in their automatic reactions of self-defense and in fighting immediate gratification and reproduction. Advances in human knowledge can lead us to our next phase of evolution, one that must be made consciously. Quantum physics has shown us that the wall of separation we perceive between everything that exists in the universe and therefore between matter and energy, subject and object, is not really there. Matter is not solid and space is not empty. The same particles that make up a table are interwoven with the air around it and with the table's owner. Once all of humanity accepts this vision of matter as a single but multiform creative energy event we can begin a new era and the possibility of enlightened faith
