Mel S Story Surviving Military Sexual Assault:

Mel's Story G. B. Trudeau, 2014-10-28 An estimated 19 000 rapes and sexual assaults took place in the military last year Every one of them represents a monstrous crime made much worse by the sense of betrayal that accompanied it That so few victims just one in seven report these crimes underscores the utter lack of trust that pervades military culture Retired Gen Loree Sutton and Garry Trudeau in a Washington Post OpEd June 29 2013 The first time B D encounters command rape survivor Melissa Wheeler in the waiting room at the VA Center he has no idea what to make of the scowling former chopper mechanic But in the months that follow witnessing Mel s pain and her healing process help him with his own and B D ends up a staunch and encouraging ally With the help of VA counselors Cora and Elias Wheeler is able to reframe her experience and move forward to the point where she re ups and re deploys though the trauma and betrayal continue to haunt her She and battlebud Roz masterfully manage a perilous rescue op of a downed USO chopper and in the new post DADT world the now out Roz and her now superior That s SERGEANT bitch to you help wind down US ops in Afghanistan Returning stateside Mel s final obstacle is her father s cluelessness and a widespread reluctance to hear the truth of her story As always Trudeau manages to find humor and humanity in even a tale of suffering and sheds serious light on one of the most pressing and undermining problems in our military today Yuge!

G. B. Trudeau, 2016-07-05 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER He tried to warn us Ever since the release of the first Trump for President trial balloon in 1987 Doonesbury s Garry Trudeau has tirelessly tracked and highlighted the unsavory career of the most unqualified candidate to ever aspire to the White House It s all there the hilarious narcissism the schoolyard bullying the loathsome misogyny the breathtaking ignorance and a good portion of the Doonesbury cast has been tangled up in it Join Duke Honey Earl J J Mike Mark Roland Boopsie B D Sal Alice Elmont Sid Zonker Sam Bernie Rev Sloan and even the Red Rascal as they cross storylines with the big orange airhorn who s giving the GOP such fits Garry Trudeau is the sleazeball third rate talent who draws the overrated comic strip Doonesbury which very few people read He lives in New York City with his wife Jane Pauley who has far more talent than he has

Surviving Vietnam Bruce Philip Dohrenwend, Nick Turse, Thomas J. Yager, Melanie M. Wall, 2019 Uniquely using historical material and military records as well as personal interviews and clinical diagnoses Surviving Vietnam focuses on veterans war zone experiences and the development in some of PTSD It addresses controversies regarding reported rates of PTSD and the importance of exposure to traumatic events compared with pre war personal vulnerability Culture-Bound Syndromes in Popular Culture Cringuta Irina Pelea, 2023-11-30 This volume explores culture bound syndromes defined as a pattern of symptoms mental physical and or relational experienced only by members of a specific cultural group and recognized as a disorder by members of those groups and their coverage in popular culture Encompassing a wide range of popular culture genres and mediums from film and TV to literature graphic novels and anime the chapters offer a dynamic mix of approaches to analyze how popular culture has engaged with specific culture bound syndromes such as hwabyung hikikomori taijin kyofusho zou huo ru mo sati amok Cuban hysteria voodoo death and others Spanning a global and interdisciplinary remit this first of its kind anthology will allow scholars and students of popular culture media and film studies comparative literature medical humanities cultural psychiatry and philosophy to explore simultaneously a diversity of popular cultures and culturally rooted mental health disorders

Political Animals So Mayer, 2015-10-22 Feminist filmmakers are hitting the headlines The last decade has witnessed the first Best Director Academy Award won by a woman female filmmakers reviving or starting careers via analogue and digital television women filmmakers emerging from Saudi Arabia Palestine Pakistan South Korea Paraguay Peru Burkina Faso Kenya and The Cree Nation a bold emergent trans cinema feminist porn screened at public festivals Sweden's A Markt for films that pass the Bechdel Test and Pussy Riot's online videos sending shockwaves around the world A new generation of feminist filmmakers curators and critics is not only influencing contemporary debates on gender and sexuality but starting to change cinema itself calling for a film world that is intersectional sustainable family friendly and far reaching Political Animals argues that forty years since Laura Mulvey's seminal essay Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema identified the urgent need for a feminist counter cinema this promise seems to be on the point of fulfilment Forty years of a transnational trans generational cinema has given rise to conversations between the work of now well established filmmakers such as Abigail Child Sally Potter and Agnes Varda twenty first century auteurs including Kelly Reichardt and Lucretia Martel and emerging directors such as Sandrine Bonnaire Shonali Bose Zeina Daccache and Hana Makhmalbaf A new and diverse generation of British independent filmmakers such as Franny Armstrong Andrea Arnold Amma Asante Clio Barnard Tina Gharavi Sally El Hoseini Carol Morley Samantha Morton Penny Woolcock and Campbell X join a worldwide dialogue between filmmakers and viewers hungry for a new and informed point of view Lovely vigorous and brave the new feminist cinema is a political animal that refuses to be domesticated by the persistence of everyday sexism striking out boldly to claim the public sphere as its own

Retraumatization Melanie P. Duckworth, Victoria M. Follette, 2012-05-22 Exposure to potentially traumatic events puts individuals at risk for developing a variety of psychological disorders the complexities involved in treating them are numerous and have serious repercussions How should diagnostic criteria be defined How can we help a client who does not present with traditional PTSD symptoms The mechanisms of human behavior need to be understood and treatment needs to be tested before we can move beyond traditional diagnostic criteria in designing and implementing treatment No better guide than Retraumatization exists to fulfill these goals The editors and contributors all highly regarded experts accomplish six objectives to define retraumatization outline the controversies related to it provide an overview of theoretical models present data related to the frequency of occurrence of different forms of trauma detail the most reliable strategies for assessment to provide an overview of treatments Contained within is the most current information on prevention and treatment approaches for specific populations All chapters are uniformly structured and address epidemiological data clinical descriptions assessment diagnosis and prognosis and prevention It is an indispensable resource that expands readers knowledge and skills and will encourage dialogue in a field that has many unanswered questions Rape Loot Pillage Sara Meger,2016-07-01 Rape and other forms of sexual violence have always been a feature of war Yet it is only fairly recently that researchers have identified rape as a deliberate tool of war making rather than simply an inevitable side effect of armed conflict Much of the emerging literature has suggested that the underlying causes of rape stem from a single motivation whether individual symbolic or strategic leading to disagreement in the field about how we can understand and respond to the causes and consequences of sexual violence in war In Rape Loot Pillage Sara Meger argues that sexual violence is a form of gender based political violence perpetrated against both men and women and a manifestation of unequal gender relations that are exacerbated by the social political and economic conditions of war She looks at trends in the form and function of sexual violence in recent and ongoing conflicts to contend that in different contexts sexual violence takes different forms and is used in pursuit of different objectives For this reason no single framework for addressing conflict related sexual violence will be sufficient Taking a political economy perspective Meger maintains that these variations can be explained by broader struggles over territory assets and other productive resources that motivate contemporary armed conflicts Sexual violence is a reflection of global political economic struggles and can t be addressed only at the local level it must be addressed through regional and international policy She concludes by providing some initial ideas about how this can be done via the UN and national governments Survival Media S. Perera,2016-06-13 Through the narratives and movements of survivors of the war in Lanka these interconnected essays develop the concept of survival media as embodied and expressive forms of mobility across borders The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos, 1933-1945, Volume IV Geoffrey P. Megargee,Mel Hecker,2022-04-26 The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Encyclopedia of Camps and Ghettos 1933 1945 Volume IV aims to provide as much basic information as possible about individual camps and other detention facilities Why were they established Who ran them What kinds of prisoners did they hold What kinds of work did the prisoners do and for whom What were the conditions like The entries detail the sources from which the authors drew their material so future scholars can expand upon the work Finally and perhaps most important this is a work of memorialization it preserves the histories of places where people suffered and died Volume IV examines an under researched segment of the larger Nazi incarceration system camps and other detention facilities under the direct control of the German military the Wehrmacht These include prisoner of war POW camps including camps for enlisted men camps for officers camps for naval personnel and airmen and transit camps civilian internment and labor camps work camps for Tunisian Jews brothels in which women were forced to have sex with soldiers and prisons and penal camps for Wehrmacht personnel Most of these sites have not been described in detail in the existing historical literature and a substantial number of them have never been documented at all The volume also includes an introduction to the German prisoner of war camp system and its evolution introductions to each of the various types of camps operated by the Wehrmacht and entries devoted to each individual camp representing the most comprehensive documentation to date of the Wehrmacht camp system Within the entries the volume draws upon German military documents eyewitness and survivor testimony and postwar investigations to describe the experiences of prisoners of war and civilian prisoners held captive by the Wehrmacht Of particular note is the detailed documentation of the Wehrmacht's crimes against Soviet prisoners of war which have largely been neglected in the English language literature up to this point despite the fact that more than three million Soviet prisoners died in German captivity The volume also provides substantial coverage of the diverse range of conditions encountered by other Allied prisoners of war illustrating both the substantial privations faced by all prisoners of war and the stark contrast between the Germans treatment of Soviet prisoners and those of other nationalities The volume also details the significant involvement of the Wehrmacht in crimes against the civilian populations of occupied Europe and North Africa As a result this volume not only brings to light many detention sites whose existence has been little known but also advances the decades old process of dismantling the myth of the clean Wehrmacht according to which the German military had nothing to do with the Holocaust and the Nazi regime's other crimes

Understanding War Through Intersectional Lens Keshab Giri, 2025 The exponential growth in literature on female combatants in rebel groups so far has explored why women rebel where women rebel and when women rebel Yet existing literature largely assume women combatants as homogenous universal category having similar experiences of war and post war In this milieu this book focuses on how women rebel given their multiple intersecting identities and social subjectivities It looks how female combatants experience war and post war both in public and private spheres by using intersectionality both as a theoretical framework and methodological tool inspired by feminist research methodology to explore complex experiences of women combatants during and after the war This book is based on thirty nine in depth interviews with Maoist female ex combatants their leaders and experts in Nepal between 2017 and 2018 complemented by wide ranging primary and secondary sources such as key Maoist statements and policy documents from the war era women ex combatants memoirs media sources and academic literature The book finds that female combatants experiences of war and post war both in public and private spheres are conditioned by their interlocking systems of oppression and identities such as class caste ethnicity social status educational status and geographical location The book makes an important contribution to the feminist IR literature feminist security studies and has significant policy implications particularly concerning reintegration of female combatants peacebuilding and Women Peace and Security agenda

Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 2000 The Search for Justice Kumari Jayawardena, Kishali Pinto-Jayawardena, 2016-11-21 The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the region a vast body of knowledge on this important yet silenced subject Six country volumes one each on

Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over fifty research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to perpetuate impunity for perpetrators The essays in this volume examine history and contemporary politics to understand the root causes of sexual violence in Sri Lanka They look at the polarization created around ethnic and linguistic identities during the three decades of ethnic conflict but also scrutinize the routine violence of communities towards their own women in daily life The authors argue that in this transitional post war phase Sri Lankan women must not only be treated as victims but as agents of change The writers highlight a hitherto unaddressed aspect of sexual violence that of the structures that enable impunity on the part of perpetrators be they security personnel and paramilitary forces members of armed rebel groups gangs local politicians and police or ordinary citizens including close family members They demonstrate how impunity for perpetrators is both a failure of the formal justice process and a product of individual community and social conditions and indeed the choices that victims and families make that promote silence over truth At the end of more than a quarter century of conflict that has left some 100 000 dead 50 000 women headed households struggling to survive as well as countless victims and survivors of sexual violence the calls for justice can no longer be ignored

Pulp Vietnam Gregory A. Daddis, 2020-10-22 Explores how Cold War men's magazines idealized warrior heroes and sexual conquerors and normalized conceptions of martial masculinity Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2003

Murder on Shades Mountain Melanie S. Morrison, 2018-03-15 One August night in 1931 on a secluded mountain ridge overlooking Birmingham Alabama three young white women were brutally attacked The sole survivor Nell Williams age eighteen said a black man had held the women captive for four hours before shooting them and disappearing into the woods That same night a reign of terror was unleashed on Birmingham's black community black businesses were set ablaze posses of armed white men roamed the streets and dozens of black men were arrested in the largest manhunt in Jefferson County history Weeks later Nell identified Willie Peterson as the attacker who killed her sister Augusta and their friend Jennie Wood With the exception of being black Peterson bore little resemblance to the description Nell gave the police An all white jury convicted Peterson of murder and sentenced him to death In Murder on Shades Mountain Melanie S Morrison tells the gripping and tragic story of the attack and its aftermath events that shook Birmingham to its core Having first heard the story from her father who dated Nell's youngest sister when he was a teenager Morrison scoured the historical archives and documented the black led campaigns that sought to overturn Peterson's unjust conviction spearheaded by the NAACP and the Communist Party The travesty of justice suffered by Peterson reveals how the judicial system could function as a lynch mob in the Jim Crow South Murder on Shades Mountain also sheds new light on the struggle for justice in Depression era Birmingham This riveting narrative is a testament to the courageous predecessors of present day movements that demand an end to racial profiling police brutality and the criminalization of black men Book
