Language Ideologies and Identities on Facebook and TikTok

Guyanne Wilson, 2024-06-06 This monograph examines the ways in which Caribbean content creators use elements of Caribbean Englishes and Creoles in their performances of identity in image macro memes and TikTok videos It also examines the ideologies that underlie these performances The data comprises memes from Trinidadian Facebook pages as well as videos

by Guyanese Barbadian and Trinidadian TikTokers and was analysed using the multimodal method designed by Kress For meme makers identity is understood as a system of distinction between ingroups and outgroups and language and other semiotic features notably emojis are used to distinguish Trinidadians from other nationalities and groups of Trinidadians from one another TikTokers establish their Caribbean identity primarily through knowledge of lexis but this works in concert with other linguistic features to create authentic identities Social media content is underpinned by the tension between the acceptance and rejection of standard language ideologies

Linguistic Politeness in Online Communication Hendi Pratama, 2019-09-01 Politeness is a big theme in the studies of pragmatics It has been discussed for the last seventy years and yet certain depth can still be added into the body of works This book is written to connect the classical theories of politeness and the practical applications of politeness in the digital age Today we are faced with two kinds of interactions due to technological advancements face to face interaction and cyber interaction Both interactions seem to use the same mechanism of semantics and pragmatics However in reality they have gaps With this in mind I feel the urge to make those gaps explicit Those discrepancies between face to face and cyber interaction may not be intuitive Even in some cases they are counter intuitive We human beings have been utilizing face to face interaction for at least forty thousand years yet in the last twenty years cyber communication has been infiltrating our life The infiltration started with small and limited application like email and short messages but now the infiltration has been securing some hours of our daily communications among human beings Humans from all ages plunge in the arena of cyber communication We may have had the assumption of face to face interaction politeness principles and features transferred to its cyber counterpart and vice versa Some of those politeness principles and features work well in both worlds Those are human made principles and used in the human world anyway However it is so often some principles which work well in a medium fail to convert comfortably in the other medium
