Dastardly Discourse Meg Gorzycki, 2020-03-09 Screaming at the television compulsively firing off tart little tweets and blogging until we are blue these signal that we are feeling the effects of dastardly discourse We live in a world where people feel entitled to use words to hurt exploit and publicly degrade humanity We daily consume rhetoric that makes a mockery of decency and civility Leaders of key social institutions including government news media and religious organizations who are supposed to be role models of reasoned and compassionate communication are often the ones with the loudest lies and the hardest hate We can change the channel We can unplug We can even encourage others to do the same We may not do so however until we grasp what is fundamentally at risk in our current norms of communication Nasty words are just the tip of the dastardly discourse iceberg What lies beneath is a steady flow of propaganda that aims to control our personal narratives This book is about that propaganda the importance of owning our own narratives and improving our own rhetorical capital the ability to analyze and evaluate information for the sake of sustaining human dignity decency and civility
